Second Sunday of Advent

Almost nine hundred years ago, Saint Bernard of Clairvaux suggested in one of his Advent homilies that we should think of three Advents of Christ: the First, when Christ came in humility as Mary's Child, clothed in our human nature; the Second, when Christ will come in glory as Judge and Redeemer of the world. Then Saint Bernard speaks of a Middle Coming, an "in the meantime" Advent, when Christ comes to us in his Word, in the Eucharist, and in those who need our love and care, family and friends, neighbors and strangers. That's this year's Advent, the one we're celebrating now; and this Advent's question is: how attentive am I to Christ's coming into my life-story, right here, right now?

AN UNNOTICED ADVENT

Today Luke solemnly announces the names of the secular and sacred powers who thought they held the world's destiny in their hands. But they completely missed the decisive event that forever changed the world's religious and political history. When no one else was listening, God's Word came to a nobody, John the Baptist, and not in the temple sanctuary or palace throne room, but "out in the sticks," the Word that would one day cleanse the temple and topple thrones. The powerful names that Luke announces were not popular with ordinary people: times were tough, the economy was bad, people were having to make do with less; and those names reminded common folks that so much of life was beyond their control. Sound familiar? Yet just then, when many were far from hopeful, God acted decisively to save the people, and John the Baptist invited his listeners then, and us today, to join in the Good News of new life.

GOD'S RECONSTRUCTION PLAN

We heard Baruch, in the first reading, picturing our broken world reborn: the dispersed being carried home, tears wiped away, righteousness and justice, peace and worship. How we wish it could all be true! It will be true, Paul declares, optimistic that God, who has already begun such good work in us, will continue to complete it for the day of Christ's glorious return, increasing our love and sharpening our discernment of the values that endure. So we should begin this second week of Advent reinvigorated with hope in God's plan for the world's salvation. But John the Baptist reminds us that God's "reconstruction plan" for the world's transformation begins much closer to home: what twists and turns of my own life must be untangled, what lofty mountains of my own pride and self-centeredness brought low, which gorge-deep valleys of my own indifference and neglect filled in? Come, Lord Jesus, and make the whole creation new—but start right here, right now, with me!

Our Faith

REJOICE

The prophetic writings we hear in today's scriptures call us to rejoice and celebrate the goodness of God. Zephaniah, Isaiah, Saint Paul, and John the Baptist in Luke's Gospel all follow the rich tradition of the Biblical prophets, a tradition that reaches full expression in Jesus. The prophets warn that human failings have truly disastrous consequences. All are summoned to repent, and to change their lives. Today we hear the Good News that God's gracious love exceeds and overcomes all human corruption. God has not given up on us. Indeed, God keeps pursuing us, and eagerly seeks to reconcile with us. God's initiative to set the world aright culminates with Jesus, whose coming John the Baptist announces. John's prophetic message summons us to join in God's reconciling work, by living generously and justly in our daily lives. As we rejoice in God's grace, we then extend the fruits of this grace to all.

Letter from the Pastor

Friends,

"Prepare the way of the Lord, make straight His paths." These words come to us from Luke's Gospel on this second Sunday of Advent. As one could attest, the path, the journey of faith, is anything but smooth and straight. Have you ever wondered if you are really living in God's will and doing what He wants? Sometimes it is challenging to see God's will when you are walking through it. Life seems crooked, erratic, and even out of control. We don't always see His hand, feel His presence, or know if we hear His voice.

Today's Gospel passage attributes Isaiah's prophecy to John the Baptist, who is the voice crying out in the wilderness, the message of the coming redemption. It also evokes the voice of God in Genesis, who spoke and things came to be. God's word is effective. It does what it says. Here, his word brings to fulfillment his promise to send a Messiah.

The Baptist boldly preaches that our preparation must be thorough and focused on the promise of salvation that comes with Jesus. This salvation is so immediate and intimate that John cries out, "all flesh shall see the salvation of God."

These verses from the Gospel reveal to us a deeper truth: God comes in time. He indeed enters our reality. Not generically, not virtually, but truly. Through his Incarnation, the Son of God enters the world as never before and changes it–redeems it–forever onward. He has not come symbolically; his coming is real, historical, and greater than anyone could imagine. He has taken on our flesh and comes to redeem us, to redeem the world. This is the great dawn which Advent comes to proclaim. Perhaps the Holy Spirit stirs our hearts to sit with this truth and let trust and love well up in our hearts.

In our Advent journey to Bethlehem, let us invite the Holy Spirit to remind us of the promises he has made and fulfilled. As we prepare for Christ's coming, think of someone you know who has fallen away from God. How about reaching out to them and encouraging a return? Extend an invitation to join you and our community at a Mass.

Blessings,
Fr. Steve

Friends,

On December 8, 2021, the Year of St. Joseph will come to an end. Throughout this past year we have had many opportunities to grow closer to St. Joseph, imitating his virtues and asking for his intercession.

Please visit our website and watch Fr. Jim Rodia present a unique perspective on this great Saint.

Fr. Jim will speak about 'Joseph as the Israeli man,' 'the concerned husband of Mary, 'and 'the foster father of Jesus.' Fr. Jim's reflection will be available to you via the St. Norbert website or YouTube channel.

St. Joseph, pray for us!

Peace, Deacon Hank

Thank You for Your Generosity!

"For where your treasure is, there also will your heart be." - Matthew 6:21

As we come to the end of the calendar year, I would like to present you with a full picture of where we are as well as answer questions about income and expenses. This past year has been one of the most difficult of our lives. Your giving allowed Saint Norbert's to stay strong and continue to stand with our parishioners. All of us share the hope that we'll emerge from this crisis in the coming year. As we do, Saint Norbert's gratefully relies on your continued support for our mission to be a welcoming community that encourages personal encounters with Jesus and provides opportunities to share Him with others.
Thank you for your continued support.

- Father Steve Albero

Stewardship Q&A

Giving to the church is an expression of our faith and a visible sign that the life-transforming ministries of Saint Norbert's are a priority in our lives. The following is an anticipated list of questions (and answers) that we hope you find helpful:

Q: Did the Parish receive money from the Federal Payroll Protection Program (PPP)?

A: Yes, the Parish received $348k. The Finance Council recommended the PPP money not be included in the Statement of Income & Expenses so a more accurate representation of the fiscal year would be presented since the PPP money was a one-time opportunity. This loan was used strictly for payroll expenses. It was forgiven and no payback was required.

Q: Why is the Church & Parish Office Net Income down $139k from FY 2020 to 2021?

A: Church & Parish Office Net Income was down for a few reasons: (1) weekly collections decreased due to the pandemic and less in-person Mass attendance; (2) Religious Education, Special Donations, & Other Income was down also because of less in-person offerings/events than in typical years; and (3) Maintenance costs were up due to higher snow removal costs and Covid PPE/related safety measures for Parish buildings.

Q: Why did the Parish Subsidy to the School go from $153k to $300k to $279k over 3 years?

A: The subsidy increase in 2020 was primarily due to a decline in enrollment from 218 to 203 students. Enrollment rebounded in 2021 to 216 students; however, the pandemic greatly limited in-person fundraising events/socials the School would have in a typical year.
