THIRD SUNDAY OF ADVENT

Last week our readings urged us to cast off sin and to pursue holiness eagerly. God's grace helps us do this and prepares us for limitless, everlasting glory. Today's readings confirm the great joy of this endeavor and provide specific advice on how to proceed: by becoming poor. The prophet Isaiah describes the savior who comes "to bring glad tidings to the poor." We are the poor people in need of glad tidings. Following the example of John the Baptist, we acknowledge that we are poor; we are "not worthy" of the Lord's attention. Even so, Jesus delights in caring for us. Recognizing how poor we are, and yet how great is God's love for us, we can only "rejoice always," as Saint Paul advises. We continue our Advent journey, becoming poor by emptying our hearts of sin and giving thanks to God for helping us grow in holiness.

THE EYE OF THE BEHOLDER

Children who are poor make toys out of the unlikeliest things: milk cartons, nails, bottle caps, sticks, plastic bags, corn cobs, clothespins. Folks who have plenty consider these things trash – in fact, some poor children literally make their toys out of trash. Their abject need gives them a different perspective, seeing blessing where the rich see only waste.

Material poverty is a scourge on our planet, and we must never make excuses for it. We must work tirelessly for decent conditions for every human person. As we work, we can learn from the special perspective of our brothers and sisters who do not have enough to live. We can see how depending on others for resources can transform a rich person's trash into a poor child's treasure.

SPIRITUAL POVERTY

On this "Rejoice!" Sunday in Advent, we can pray in a particular way for an end to material poverty. Today's readings assure us that the kind of poverty God desires for us is spiritual poverty, a radical knowledge that all things come from God. Where material poverty can wound the human spirit, spiritual poverty cultivates boundless joy. John the Baptist provides a startling model for us. In all sincerity, he admits that he is not worthy to touch Jesus' sandals. John says this not to charm the crowds by being coy and self-deprecating. No, John embraces the truth that God is the source of all goodness. We are utterly dependent on God for all good things. We cannot do anything to earn God's favor; God simply provides for us because we need God. This is massively good news! No one could possibly care for us like God does. At our very best, we merely reflect God's brightness into the world. God's brilliant joy is exactly what we are called to. As Saint Paul says, "The one who calls you is faithful, and he will also accomplish it."

Stewardship

Commitment

A key facet of stewardship has always been personal witness. Today's readings deal in large part with the witness of John the Baptist. St. John the Baptist, according to historians, was a few months older than Jesus. It is also generally accepted that he began preaching about six months before Jesus came to him to be baptized and to begin His ministry.

St. John the Baptist pointed to Jesus as the Messiah. John the Baptist, through personal witness, raised a great sense of expectancy and excitement, the kind of expectancy and excitement that we associate with this season of Advent. John tries to awaken in people a consciousness of sin, the importance of conversion and change, and the need to become more holy in God's eyes.

Those are the same goals we should have during this Advent season. The matter of witness is a serious and important thing. It establishes truth and a solid foundation for faith. When we personally witness, it means we make a commitment. We cannot be neutral when it comes to our faith. We are called to be disciples, witnesses of and for Christ. We best accomplish that by the ways we live our own lives and how we relate to and treat others.

Jesus can meet our every need. Now is the time for us to accept that and to place our total trust in Him. We can do that best by making our own commitment to be His disciple, a witness to Who He is and what He means to us and all people.

OVERCOMING INERTIA . . . WHEN HOPE WANES

Pope Francis recently offered a “beautiful prayer” for moments when hope is waning. In speaking on the theme of “enemies of hope,” he said, “Having an empty soul is the worst obstacle to hope. It is a danger from which no one can say they are exempt; because to be tempted against hope can happen even along the journey of Christian life. ...

“When this happens, the Christian knows that that condition must be fought against, never accepted with inertia. God created us for joy and happiness and not to wallow in melancholic thoughts.

*“This is why it is important to safeguard one’s heart, defending ourselves from sad temptations that surely do not come from God. And whereas our strength appears weak and the battle against anxiety is particularly arduous, we can always turn to Jesus’ name. We can repeat that simple prayer, traces of which we also find in the Gospels and that has become the foundation of so many Christian spiritual traditions: A lovely prayer, ‘Lord Jesus Christ, Son of the living God, have mercy on me a sinner!’

“This is a prayer of hope because I turn to Him, He who can open the doors wide and resolve the problem and have me look to the horizon, the horizon of hope.”

I suggest that this “Jesus Prayer” help in the preparation of our reception of the mercy of God at our Christmas Parish Reconciliation Service this Monday night, Dec 18 at 7 PM in our Church. We will have several of our Norbertine Fathers available for our great Sacrament of Confession.

As Fr. James Martin says, “Confession is not so much about how bad you are but about how good God is.”

Adds Fr. Anthony Gerber, “The priest is like a physician: when you go to the doctor, you tell him what has been hurting you and with more or less detail so that he knows how best to heal you. And remember: he has seen many patients with the same symptoms. Trust him, listen to his counsel and you’ll get better soon!”

Likewise, come and avail yourself of this wonderful Sacrament tomorrow night.

Also in the vein of hope, we give thanks to God for the wonderful response of so many of you this Advent who have generously responded to our Christmas “Giving Tree.” You are certainly giving hope to many at this time of year who may easily become hopeless. We are blessed as a parish by the blessing that we receive from those who have accepted our charity.

Finally, this weekend you will also hear about the wonderful, hopeful work that our Parish does in our Medical Mission Trip to Haiti. Again, the Lord blesses us and graces us to reach out to not only those close at hand who are in need through our many Outreach efforts, but also individuals who live in one of the poorest countries in the world. We will hear about this work from individuals who have traveled there and their experience. You will hear how you can help directly to provide hope to many who have little no hope.

May your journey this Advent be a Blessed one.

– Father Mike

TESTIFYING TO THE LIGHT

In this Sunday’s Gospel, John the Baptist came “to testify to the light, so that all might believe through him. He was not the light, but came to testify to the light” (John 1:6-8,19-28). Cardinal Jean Danielou writes, “To shake the world out of this indifference we need prophets, that is to say, people whose souls are captured by the divine vision of things and who can shake the mass of people out of their inertia, and be, in truth, “witnesses.” As we move into the final week of Advent, think about how you can witness to the light as a Fervent Disciple. — Fr. Mike

WHERE DID THAT COME FROM?

THE TREASURE OF GAUDETE SUNDAY

Gaudete Sunday signals the half way point through Advent – like Lent – a period originally set aside as a fast of 40 days in preparation for Christ's birth on Christmas. Advent was shortened in the ninth century to four weeks. On this Sunday, the violet of the priest's Advent robes gives way to the rose of joy on the way to the bright white of Jesus' birth on Christmas and Redemption. Pope Francis in his 2014 Gaudete Sunday homily called this the "Sunday of Joy" and that instead of fretting about "...all they still haven't done" to prepare for Christmas, people should "think of all the good things life has given you. ...it hurts to see Christians with a bitter face, restless with bitterness because they are not at peace..." and no one has ever seen a saint with "a sad face." Gaudete comes from the Latin word "Rejoice" which also happens to be the first words in today's Antiphon: "Rejoice in the Lord." It is also the title of a Medieval hymn "Gaudete: Rejoice rejoice! Christ has born (out) of the Virgin Mary – rejoice!" which was recorded and became a hit acapella song by Steeleye Span in 1972 (pictured above). You can view it and the English translation of the lyrics at StNorbert.org or view on YouTube at:

Around Our Parish

Last Sunday's 11:30 PM Our Lady of Guadalupe's feast day Mass was standing room only and continued in our gym with great food, fellowship and fun (1). A Family Rosary group (2), drawing families from area parishes, has been meeting and praying around Marian feasts for several years. Recently, they gathered for a Bilingual Rosary, meal and fellowship with our St. Norbert Spanish community. Parishioner Ron Pollack (in the Phila Warriors jacket with son Brian to his left) was recently featured in a Philly Inquirer article about his work with his father who founded modern sports statistical reporting (3). Ron was at his dad's side as they recorded Wilt Chamberlain's 100 point game in 1962. Go to StNorbert.org News for a link to the article. Over 250 Grand VIPs came to our school for a short prayer service, visits to classrooms, a talent assembly and refreshments (4-5). Always a treat for everyone.

HAITI MEDICAL MISSION

"Helping the poor of Haiti has been a very humbling experience. The poor have nothing to give us back but their thanks."

– Martina Tamaro

For the fourth time, we will sponsor a volunteer medical mission team of 11 physicians, nurse practitioners, nurses and pharmacy personnel to Port-au-Prince, Haiti Feb 3-10 to offer free medical care and attention to the poorest of the poor at the St Jude Clinic.

Our mission costs around $25,000 per trip. Our volunteers pay their own travel costs, and we stay very close to the clinic itself in a tough area of Port-au-Prince. The greatest challenge is to procure enough medical supplies to treat approximately 800 patients, but this is not enough and we are always in need of more supplies.

OVERWHELMING SUCCESS

Once again, the your generosity was overwhelming for our sister parish St. Gabe's in Grays Ferry, as over 1,000 food bags, 400 gift cards for turkey purchases and 40 frozen turkeys were distributed. "Every year, I'm amazed at how this parish responds both with the food donations and the funds raised at our recent St. Gabe's Wine Tasting benefit," said Ed

Grady. "We also greatly appreciate our partners at Paoli ACME who are so very gracious and helpful in assembling food bags and donating food not only to this effort, but throughout the year. Finally, we are always looking for volunteer drivers and helpers in assembling food parcels every week.
