FOURTH SUNDAY OF ADVENT

PREGNANT WITH GOD

Advent, as a time of preparation for Christmas, echoes the pregnancy of Mary. Something is stirring within us, and we await the coming of Jesus. Although we the Church have observed Advent and Christmas many times, God is always offering something new to us. Like the angel asked Mary, God is always asking us to allow Christ to be born in and through us. Christ wishes to make himself at home within us and increase his presence in our hearts. Like pregnancy, at times God's activity within us can be disorienting and confusing. The story of Elizabeth and Mary reminds us that however uncertain we may be about what God is up to in our lives, we have cause to rejoice--because God is indeed good and will truly bring blessing to us. And through the fruit of our own wombs, God will bring blessing to the world.

Children of the parish are somewhat focused on Santa Claus these days, who is keeping an eye on who's naughty and who's nice. Santa Claus, with his heavenly patron Saint Nicholas, has been more or less in charge of gift-giving to American children for a hundred years or so. In other places, perhaps more attentive to our Christian tradition, there are different gift-bearers. In Greece, Saint Basil delivers the presents on his feast day, December 31, and makes sure everyone is sprinkled with holy water. The Baby Jesus is in charge elsewhere, called the Christkind in Austria and Belgium, El Niño Jesús in Colombia, and Le Petit Jesus in France, where he shares his duties with Père Noël. In the Czech Republic almost everyone is atheist, but Jezisek, the infant Jesus, brings gifts to one and all. In Poland the "Star Man" is said to bring the gifts, although often he turns out to be the village priest in disguise. Saint Nicholas, not his Americanized cousin, is the giver in Holland, where he wears a bishop's miter, and in Russia, where he wears a bishop's crown. Soviet Communist Russia tried to dethrone Saint Nicholas and promote Grandfather Frost, but no one was much fooled by this attempt to squeeze religion out of Christ's birth. One country has a saintly woman in charge of the gifts, Saint Lucy, honored in Sweden on December 13, when children serve their parents breakfast in bed, and others awake to news that they have been nominated for a Nobel Prize. Some children have a second round of gifts on Epiphany, when the Magi assume the gift-giving duties. In general, the gifts of Christmas are simple pleasures, not great heaps of treasures. Once upon a time, a new pair of socks or an orange was enough for us. No matter what gifts we receive, all of them are to point us to the true gift, and the true giver: Our Lord Jesus Christ.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

MERRY CHRISTMAS

Agents of Hope

Mary gave birth; she gave us Jesus, the Light of the world. A simple story that plunges us into the event that changes our history for ever. Everything, that night, became a source of hope....

The faith we proclaim tonight makes us see God present in all those situations where we think he is absent. He is present in the unwelcomed visitor, often unrecognizable, who walks through our cities and our neighborhoods, who travels on our buses and knocks on our doors....

This same faith impels us to make space for a new social imagination, and not to be afraid of experiencing new forms of relationship, in which none have to feel that there is no room for them on this earth. Christmas is a time for turning the power of fear into the power of charity, into power for a new imagination of charity....

In the Child of Bethlehem, God comes to meet us and make us active sharers in the life around us. He offers himself to us, so that we can take him into our arms, lift him and embrace him. So that in him we will not be afraid to take into our arms, raise up and embrace the thirsty, the stranger, the naked, the sick, the imprisoned....

In this Child, God invites us to be messengers of hope. He invites us to become sentinels for all those bowed down by the despair born of encountering so many closed doors. In this child, God makes us agents of his hospitality.

Moved by the joy of the gift, little Child of Bethlehem, we ask that your crying may shake us from our indifference and open our eyes to those who are suffering. May your tenderness awaken our sensitivity and recognize our call to see you in all those who arrive in our cities, in our histories, in our lives. May your revolutionary tenderness persuade us to feel our call to be agents of the hope and tenderness of our people.

From The Pastor

OVERWHELMING GENEROSITY . . .

MERRY CHRISTMAS

"Dear Mr. and Mrs. Claus: I feel so blessed to be able to have the opportunity to be spending Christmas with my children sober and clean. And now, thanks to you, they will have an even more unforgettable day." – MC

"On behalf of Gaudenzia New Image, we as a group of women and children would like to thank you for choosing our program for your generous donations! We all are extremely thankful and grateful for what you are doing for our families! Many of us women do not have much to give our children a proper Christmas that they truly deserve. Thank you for bringing a bit more cheer to us all and making our Christmas much happier!"

Sincerely,
BB

New Image -Gaudenzia

Although I've only been the Pastor at St. Norbert's for a little over a month, I have been overwhelmed by the immense generosity of you our parishioners for our fellow brothers and sisters.

I'd like to thank Marsha and Manny Menendez, Carol Coyne Shannahan and their Christmas Giving Tree team. Over six weeks ago, they began planning, recruiting and working first on the Military Prayer Chains created to express our sincere thanks and spirituality for those who serve in our Armed Forces protecting our country and way of life. Betty Collins, Marianne D'Agostino, and Kay Wasson coordinated this effort from beginning to end. A big thank you too to all those volunteers who stayed after Mass to write, paste and create the prayer chains that were sent overseas to our loved ones.

Then there were the unsung heroes who organized and held the Ornament Party for the Christmas Giving Trees. In particular, Cele McCarthy made thousands of Giving Tree Labels with gift requests. A labor of love!

In all, over 1,400 gifts were collected and distributed this Christmas. I'll let Marsha Menendez finish this Christmas Story:

"Manny and I, as well as several parishioners – Ron and Marie Pollack, Bob Walentis and Karen Pyne, Bob Brink (5th year), Elizabeth VondemHagen, and Carol Coyne Shannahan – traveled to each of the charities to deliver the gifts you donate. Thanks to you, we are able to help over 10 charities care for those less fortunate this Christmas.

Several highlights of our deliveries include St. Gabe's Parish where Sister Eileen was overwhelmed when we gave her the Fresh Grocer gift cards saying, 'You don't know what a blessing this is to our people who have to make the difficult choice between food, rent, a mortgage payment or gifts for Christmas this year.

Thank you so much.'

"Then there was the Gaudenzia truck that arrived to take all the gifts to the West Chester Campus. The same two gentlemen who drove the truck last year, arrived again. There were warm hugs exchanged as we loaded the truck so fast that we were able to pretend to load my husband's bicycle on the truck as a gift. Everyone got a hearty laugh out of that and Manny got his dear bike back.

"For the first time, we visited Our Mother's House. Once again, smiles, excitement and thank yous occur. As I receive their joy, I am on a mountaintop shouting with joy internally and sending a prayer of thanksgiving to God for all of you who give so much at St. Norbert's. As we tour their facility, a detailed discussion follows of their joys, triumphs, and struggles as they provide love, support and care to single Moms who choose life. Without hesitation, we leave knowing that your gifts are being well received and so appreciated.

"Without exception the directors, coordinators and volunteers at each charity share expressions of gratitude, thankfulness, and joy to us. I want to pass these genuine feelings on to each of you. You are the reason for these experiences of joy! You give of yourselves to reach out to those whom you most likely will never meet. How can I express to you these yearly graces which through your generosity are bestowed on us? How can I make you feel their expressions of Love that I and those individuals mentioned above are asked to pass on to You?"

Thank you all for my first wonderful Christmas here at St. Norbert's. We are blessed.

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year!

– Fr. Steve

News & Events

FROM YOUR PARISH PASTORAL COUNCIL

RESPONSE TO CRISIS

NOTE: The content of this article is posted on our website.

In response to this Fall's revelations of clerical sexual abuse, your Parish Pastoral Council (PPC) has been diligently working to respond to these disheartening events.

So far, the PPC has responded in the following ways:

LETTERS: The PPC has expressed our concerns in letters and emails to:

- ♦ Pope Francis letter link: <http://parish.stnorbert.org/pdf/Parish%20Council/Final%20Pope%20Letter.pdf>
- ♦ Cardinal Daniel DiNardo President of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) email link: <http://parish.stnorbert.org/pdf/Parish%20Council/Letter%20to%20Cardinal%20DiNardo.pdf>
- ♦ Archbishop Charles Chaput email link: <http://parish.stnorbert.org/pdf/Parish%20Council/Letter%20to%20Archbishop%20Chaput.pdf> Archbishop Chaput response link: <http://parish.stnorbert.org/pdf/Parish%20Council/Letter%20and%20response%20to%20Archbishop%20Chaput.pdf>

PETITION: The PPC has created a special online petition for parishioners and other concerned Catholics to sign that recommends a specific way for our Bishops to provide ongoing public assurance that all instances of potential sexual abuse are being referred to law enforcement authorities and that all credibly accused abusers are being removed from ministry. Link to Petition: <https://www.gopetition.com/petitions/request-for-us-catholic-bishops-to-certify-sex-abuse-reporting.html>

MONTHLY HEALING NIGHTS: The last Thursday of every month, Fr. Arul has been leading a Guided Meditation Holy Hour organized by the Parish Council. These evenings are designed to provide a time for all to pray for those abused, our Church and parish. The evenings are from 7-8 pm in the St. Norbert Church with prayer, Confession, Adoration, and Benediction. The next evening will be Thursday, Jan 31 at 7 pm.

NEXT STEPS

RESPOND: The Parish Council encourages you to review these letters and, perhaps, send your own letter to Pope Francis and our Bishops or forward them these letters.

PARTICIPATE: We encourage you to sign the online Petition and send the link to family members, friends and other concerned Catholics in your network for review and signature. The more signatures we can collect on the Petition, the more force the proposal will have when brought to the attention of the Bishops and those in a position to influence them.

CONTACT: The PPC is continuing to discern, discuss, evaluate and develop additional initiatives on this subject. We also want to hear from you about your concerns, issues, thoughts, response to these initiatives and future efforts. Please contact or talk to:

HOLY HOUR . . .
CALLED BY NAME

On Sunday, Jan 6, parishes across the Philadelphia Archdiocese will be holding a special Holy Hour to pray for an increase in vocations and for God to grant clarity to men discerning the priesthood.

In our area, this Holy Hour will be held at St. Elizabeth Parish in Chester Springs Sunday, Jan 6 at 2 PM.

As part of the Archdiocesan-wide Called by Name program, parishioners are invited to nominate men who you consider may make good priests. If you know a young man, aged 16-45, who has the qualities to be a good and holy priest, you can nominate them by visiting the website heedthecall.org/calledbyname.

Nominees will then be invited to connect with the Vocation Office for the Diocesan Priesthood for discernment programs and support.

Parishes throughout the Archdiocese are praying collectively as a community of faith on Jan 6. Thank you for joining your prayers with theirs. For a full list of hosting parishes, visit heedthecall.org/holyhour.
