THE HOLY FAMILY OF JESUS, MARY AND JOSEPH

Christmas celebrates the Incarnation, the “en-flesh-ment” of God as a human person. In Jesus, God is bodily present in the human story.

Today we honor the Holy Family, helping us to see that God is active in daily family life. God is near at hand, amidst the tensions, joys, and uncertainties of family life. As our Gospel passage describes, even with family miscommunications and with limited understanding of Jesus’ mission, the Holy Family persevered in their life together. Like many family conflicts, there was no immediate or clear resolution of the issues raised by Jesus and by Mary. God’s intentions for the family, and for Jesus, were still unfolding. They continued to stay connected with each other and with God. Within the turbulence of family life, they trusted God to actively sustain and guide them into an uncertain future. We are invited to follow their example.

HANNAH & MARY

The story of Hannah and her son Samuel in today’s reading from 1 Samuel was especially important for Luke’s Gospel. The passage describes the presentation of young Samuel to the priest Eli as part of the story of the faith of Hannah. Hannah had been in great suffering, as she had long desired to have a son, and saw this as central to her vocation and identity. Hannah’s deep honesty with God during her distress, together with her confident persistence in prayer, reveals her as a model of faith. Luke links Hannah to Mary through the Magnificat song in Luke 1, which mirrors Hannah’s joyous song in 1 Samuel 2. Luke links young Samuel to Jesus, through the presentation in the Temple in Luke 2.

Luke is suggesting that God is up to something big. Just as Samuel initiated a turning point in Israel’s history, Jesus is about to open a new chapter in human history. Their stories are rooted in the remarkable faith of their mothers, Hannah and Mary.

WEAVING THE STORY

Today’s passage from Luke is the only story about Jesus in the Gospels that occurs between Jesus’ infancy and his adult ministry. Luke uses the story to weave these elements together.

This story, like all the infancy passages, emphasizes that Jesus was born Son of God. Jesus’ first spoken words in Luke conclude with “I must be in my Father’s house.” God is his Father, and Jesus speaks as God’s Son.

Luke connects the future ministry of Jesus with the scene at the temple with the teachers. Jesus’ listeners are astounded at his wisdom. This anticipates similar scenes as an adult. Luke also subtly hints at Jesus’ resurrection, with details such as the question “why were you looking for me?” similar to “why do you seek the living one among the dead?” Luke invites us to see his Gospel as an integrated whole, weaving together Jesus’ birth, life, death, and resurrection.

Making Priorities

The Holy Family experienced many of the same joys and trials that all parents and children experience today. And, so, we can look to this Family for help in our own family lives and see in them a model of stewardship in family life.

The Gospel passage from Luke starts by telling us something about Jesus' parents: "Each year Jesus' parents went to Jerusalem for the feast of the Passover, and when he was twelve years old, they went up according to festival custom." This Family took seriously the stewardship of their time. The "Holy Couple" carefully observed the traditions and practice of their Jewish faith and brought up their Son to do the same. They worshiped as a family, and with their faith community. And they did so faithfully.

We can take their example to heart by making Sunday Mass attendance a priority for our families, by making prayer with our family a priority every day, by making sure that we regularly celebrate the Sacrament of Reconciliation, and by observing in our family life the feasts and fasts appropriate to the liturgical calendar.

When we, as families, prioritize our Time with God and worship of Him, we will be imitating the Holy Family.

On this Feast of the Holy Family, let us reclaim the beauty and importance of family life. Let's commit to steward our families well in 2019, making time spent with God and practicing our faith the most important appointments on our family calendars.

From The Pastor

WANT TO GO DEEPER?

WALKING IN HIS "STEPS"

In 2017, we at St. Norbert Parish participated in the Discipleship Maker Index (DMI) survey. Many of you responded to this survey sponsored by the Catholic Leadership Institute (CLI).

The survey is designed to measure parishioner's opportunity for spiritual growth, engagement with their parish (e.g., Confession, service, hospitality, bible study/workshops, faith sharing groups, retreats), and beliefs about faith while providing your leadership with understanding about parishioners' satisfaction with our parish, pastor and parish activities.

Our response rate according to the CLI people was "excellent" as 48% of our Sunday participants responded (NOTE: The survey was emailed and sent via letter to all registered parishioners. Responders overwhelmingly indicated that they were Sunday Mass participants).

Results of the survey have been reported to parishioners in the past and if you would like to receive a copy of the results, please contact Ann Simpson at the St. Norbert Parish Office, 610.644.1655

One of the most heartening responses from you our parishioners was that over 70% of the respondents are growing in their spirituality, would like to grow more or are in a period of rapid growth.

As you know, we here at St. Norbert's have focused our Parish Pastoral Plan since 2014 on three key missions:

- ◆ ENCOUNTERING JESUS: Create a community that encourages an Encounter with Jesus

- ◆ FOCUSING ON SUNDAY: Enhance the Sunday experience of our worship to better enable people to encounter Jesus
- ◆ FORMING FERVENT DISCIPLES: Engage and enable our parish community to grow as a community of Fervent Disciples through our ministries and a specific discipling effort

We have been working hard over the past few years and will continue to focus in the future on these three missions.

Paramount to helping parishioners encounter Jesus is for us to become even more Fervent Disciples. As part of that effort, you all should have received our Christmas gift this year of Dr. Edward Sri's book "Into His Likeness: Be Transformed as a Disciple of Jesus." (If you have not received this book, please look in the back of the Church or contact the parish office.)

This small book is a quick read and a road map to becoming an even more Fervent Disciple. We hope you will read the book between now and Lent (starting Ash Wednesday, March 6).

But this year, we are going to do a bit more with our Christmas gift. During Lent we will walk with parishioners who want to go deeper in Faithful Connections Sessions that explore what it means to be a disciple of Christ and how we can do that with assistance of Dr. Sri's book.

Already in our parish, several Faithful Connections groups have been walking in Jesus' "steps" and gaining insight into what it looks like to really follow Him.

More information on these sessions will be coming in the new year.

Happy New Year!
Fr. Steve

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

LEFT BEHIND?

Today's feast is new as feasts go, and it sets us this year in a very modern crisis. Amid conflicting schedules and commitments, a young man, testing the limits, has strayed from his parents and gone off to the big city. Mary and Joseph search frantically, only to find the child Jesus in the temple, conversing with the elders and scholars of the law, who are amazed at his wisdom.

In the time of Jesus, the temple was the religious center of Jewish ritual. Outside of Jerusalem, people gathered in the synagogues, centers of learning, for daily prayer and study. Still, everyone longed to journey to the temple to participate in the offerings, and to fulfill certain obligations of the law that could only be done there. On this feast, we catch a glimpse of the family of Jesus: parents dealing with the normal stresses of raising a child, and yet completely grounded in the ways of faith and tradition.

There has always been an appreciation in Christianity for the value of pilgrimage – the journey to holy places that is a symbol of our life's journey to God, and a sense of connection to important events in our family history. During the Christmas season, many of us undertake pilgrimages to the family homestead for festival meals, to the parishes where we were formed in the faith, or perhaps even to a beautiful manger scene or festival of lights. There are few better days than this in our calendar for spending time with the family, especially on a short pilgrimage to a favorite place. Just make sure that no one gets left behind!

News & Events

FROM YOUR PARISH PASTORAL COUNCIL

RESPONSE TO CRISIS

NOTE: The content of this article is posted on our website.

In response to this Fall's revelations of clerical sexual abuse, your Parish Pastoral Council (PPC) has been diligently working to respond to these disheartening events.

So far, the PPC has responded in the following ways:

LETTERS: The PPC has expressed our concerns in letters and emails to:

- ◆ Pope Francis letter link: <http://parish.stnorbert.org/pdf/Parish%20Council/Final%20Pope%20Letter.pdf>
- ◆ Cardinal Daniel DiNardo President of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) email link: <http://parish.stnorbert.org/pdf/Parish%20Council/Letter%20to%20Cardinal%20DiNardo.pdf>
- ◆ Archbishop Charles Chaput email link: <http://parish.stnorbert.org/pdf/Parish%20Council/Letter%20to%20Archbishop%20Chaput.pdf> Archbishop Chaput response link: <http://parish.stnorbert.org/pdf/Parish%20Council/Letter%20and%20response%20to%20Archbishop%20Chaput.pdf>

PETITION: The PPC has created a special online petition for parishioners and other concerned Catholics to sign that recommends a specific way for our Bishops to provide ongoing public assurance that all instances of potential sexual abuse are being referred to law enforcement authorities and that all credibly accused abusers are being removed from ministry. Link to Petition: <https://www.gopetition.com/petitions/request-for-us-catholic-bishops-to-certify-sex-abuse-reporting.html>

MONTHLY HEALING NIGHTS: The last Thursday of every month, Fr. Arul has been leading a Guided Meditation Holy Hour organized by the Parish Council. These evenings are designed to provide a time for all to pray for those abused, our Church and parish. The evenings are from 7-8 pm in the St. Norbert Church with prayer, Confession, Adoration, and Benediction. The next evening will be Thursday, Jan 31 at 7 pm.

NEXT STEPS

RESPOND: The Parish Council encourages you to review these letters and, perhaps, send your own letter to Pope Francis and our Bishops or forward them these letters.

PARTICIPATE: We encourage you to sign the online Petition and send the link to family members, friends and other concerned Catholics in your network for review and signature. The more signatures we can collect on the Petition, the more force the proposal will have when brought to the attention of the Bishops and those in a position to influence them.

CONTACT: The PPC is continuing to discern, discuss, evaluate and develop additional initiatives on this subject. We also want to hear from you about your concerns, issues, thoughts, response to these initiatives and future efforts. Please contact or talk to:

HOLY HOUR . . .
CALLED BY NAME

On Sunday, Jan 6, parishes across the Philadelphia Archdiocese will be holding a special Holy Hour to pray for an increase in vocations and for God to grant clarity to men discerning the priesthood.

In our area, this Holy Hour will be held at St. Elizabeth Parish in Chester Springs Sunday, Jan 6 at 2 PM.

As part of the Archdiocesan-wide Called by Name program, parishioners are invited to nominate men who you consider may make good priests. If you know a young man, aged 16-45, who has the qualities to be a good and holy priest, you can nominate them by visiting the website heedthecall.org/calledbyname.

Nominees will then be invited to connect with the Vocation Office for the Diocesan Priesthood for discernment programs and support.

Parishes throughout the Archdiocese are praying collectively as a community of faith on Jan 6. Thank you for joining your prayers with theirs. For a full list of hosting parishes, visit heedthecall.org/holyhour.
