THE HOLY FAMILY OF JESUS, MARY & JOSEPH

"[H]e thought the one who had made the promise was trustworthy." Abraham trusted in God, although what God had promised seemed impossible. And yet, God fulfilled his promise to Abraham and Sarah and gave them a much-longed-for son, through whom the people would be as numerous as the stars of the sky.

Mary and Joseph fulfilled the law of God by bringing Jesus to the temple for the customary rites. They obeyed the law of the Lord, even though it could be argued that Jesus, being God, was exempt from the law.

We see in their example how faith in God is considered "an act of righteousness." We can follow in their footsteps and believe that the Lord is one whose promises are trustworthy.

GOD'S WORD HAS BEEN FULFILLED

In this joyous Christmas time, it is fitting that we turn our attention from all the angels and shepherds and kings to take a look at the more intimate picture of the Holy Family in their ordinary life. They come with Jesus to consecrate him to the Lord, as is written in the law, and they come upon Simeon and Anna, prophets of the Lord, who have amazing things to say about this child and Mary, his mother. One can wonder what Mary must have thought when Simeon told her that "you yourself a sword will pierce." We interpret that in hindsight she would suffer greatly at the crucifixion of her beloved son. But what must she have thought at the possible literal interpretation of this prophecy? And yet she was, as always, obedient to God and accepting of God's word for her.

TWO PROPHETS

Simeon and Anna recognized in this infant the Messiah of God. Both were "righteous and devout" and prayed in the temple constantly. Simeon spoke at length to Mary and Joseph about this child, and Anna proclaimed to all the salvation of Israel in Jesus. Throughout the centuries, God had made use of many prophets to proclaim the coming of Jesus, as Jesus explained to the two disciples on the road to Emmaus after his death and resurrection. But people, being hard-hearted and somewhat clueless, did not recognize these prophecies as referring to the Messiah and later, to Jesus. Many in his time heeded the words of the prophets and believed, but many walked away. To those who believed, he gave the words of eternal life. They believed that "the one who had made the promise was trustworthy." These loving parents would protect and raise this miraculous child, and he "grew and became strong, filled with wisdom; and the favor of God was upon him."

OUR VISION

St. Norbert Parish aspires to become one in Christ as a community of fervent disciples, who listen attentively for the guidance of the Holy Spirit, and who lovingly embrace Jesus, present in the poor, the alienated and the spiritually hungry.

Stewardship

Your Dream?

The primary purpose of The Feast of the Holy Family is to present the Holy Family as a model for Christian families.

In Italy there is a saying, "La famiglia é tutto," which means, "the family is everything."

Our Holy Father Pope Francis has made families one of the focal points of his papacy. He organized a conference on families in 2015. Speaking to the gathered families, he said, "You cannot have a family without dreams. I am very fond of dreams in families. For nine months, every mother and father dream about their baby. They dream about what kind of child he or she will be... You can't have a family without dreams. Once a family loses the ability to dream, children do not grow, love does not grow, life shrivels up and dies. So I ask you each evening, when you make your examination of conscience, to also ask yourselves this question: Today did I dream about my children's future? Today did I dream about the love of my husband, my wife? Did I dream about my parents and grandparents who have gone before me?"

All of today's readings have to do with families and family life. The reading from Sirach, our First Reading, emphasized the Fourth Commandment, "Honor thy father and mother." We are commanded to respect and love our parents. However, it is a two way street. The Gospel Reading speaks of the development of Jesus, and that should inspire parents to understand that our prayers are the same as the prayers of Joseph and Mary — that our children will become strong in spirit and filled with wisdom. © catholicsteward.com

HAPPY NEW YEAR 2018 . . . "CAKE WALK"

I am sure there are areas of the United States where there are customs welcoming in the New Year. New York comes to mind with the dropping of the ball in Times Square and the thousands upon thousands of people who gather there to watch and celebrate the beginning of a New Year.

I've never been in New York for New Year's Eve; however, growing up in South Philadelphia I guess you could say New Year's Day and the traditional Mummings Parade is in my DNA. If you are from this area — particularly South Philly — then there is no need to explain.

The picture nearby is a very old shot of the South Philly String Band, which was started at Saint Gabriel Parish in South Philadelphia. Somewhere in this 1957 picture you might find a very young Father Mike following the South Philly String Band. This is kind of like Where's Waldo. I had a full head of hair and I was 12 years old. So, that may be a clue. Good luck!

On a more serious note we all welcome the New Year in various ways. For some it is a great celebration looking forward to the coming year and packing off the past year with a hearty good bye.

For some it has been a sad year with the passing of loved ones. We believe that our assurances of life eternal — and with the Grace of God — we will all be together: "In my Father's house [where] there are many dwelling places; otherwise, how could I have told you that I am going to prepare a place for you?" (John 14:2)

As a parish we give thanks to God for the many blessings we received this past year and pray for those for whom 2017 was a very difficult one.

I am truly blessed to have been part of the Mummings Celebration as it has for decades been a part of South Philadelphia. My step mother's father, Bill Eells, was one of the original members to "cake walk" and the proud father of ten children that grew up on Second Street. Most of my family were part of the other side of Broad Street in St. Gabriel Parish where the South Philly String Band began in the kitchen of Sam Hamilton on the 1500 Block of 30th Street.

May 2018 be a year of grace-filled-moments for all. And, if you get a chance, look for me on Broad Street welcoming in the New Year and enjoying the MUMMERS PARADE.

— Fr. Mike

TREASURES OF OUR TRADITION

GAUDI'S SANDCASTLE TO THE HOLY FAMILY

There's no more unusual setting to celebrate today's Feast of the Holy Family than Barcelona, Spain and the towering unfinished sandcastle known officially as the Temple Expiatori de la Sagrada Família (Expiatory Church of the Holy Family — photo right).¹ The church was to be "a symbolic expression in stone of the Christian faith with the Family of Nazareth (left photo) as a model for a united family." The modern artist Antoni Gaudi dedicated his life to the project, living in the building, attending Mass daily, and giving up his personal wealth. When people pressed him to pick up the pace, he responded, "My client is not in a hurry." (Gaudi's cause for beatification is moving along, and he could be the first professional artist and architect to be beatified.) The Spanish Civil War, a disaster for the Catholic Church in which thousands of priests, brothers, and nuns were murdered, halted work in 1935. In the 1950s work began anew, speeded up by computers in the 1980s. Still, the final stage of construction is not due to end until 2026. So far there are eight towers, with four to go [with each symbolizing Biblical figures in the New Testament]. The highest steeple is three feet shorter than the nearest hill, since the architect didn't want his work to surpass God's artistry. The three faces of the basilica each have three doors, with the faces named Passion, Nativity, and Grace. The interior is crammed with geometric figures that almost seem to spin, crazy-quilt windows, spiral staircases, and jumbles of statues and figures. Although inspired by ancient Gothic cathedrals, the style is called Expressionist, and very little is left unexpressed by the masonry.²

POSITIVE PARENTING

Positive Parenting Playbook is a 5-week course on Sundays, Feb 4 to March 11, from 10:15-11:15 AM, between our two morning Masses. This program, led by Lisa Corcoran, will empower you to parent your children in ways that build up and help both parent and child grow together. Topics including:

- ♦ "Why they do that?" Understanding your child's behavior
- ♦ "Motivating through Encouragement"
- ♦ "Listen up mom and dad:" Learning how to hear your child
- ♦ "I own that:" "I" messages and problem solving
- ♦ "Is there another way to discipline?"

Lisa is a long-time St. Norbert parishioner with 9 children, 6 siblings and 97 cousins, which may have led to her to study parenting. She founded The Parenting Playbook that combines her Alfred Adler studies with practical tools to raise loving, responsible, confident and happy children. "God desires for us to have homes of happiness and harmony and this workshop will help you make that a reality," she added. Husbands and wives and encourages to come together. COST: $75 per couple and $65 for one parent or $20 per drop-in session if you are unable to make the entire course. Workbook 20. Space limited. REGISTER: <https://secure.acceptiva.com/?cst=3045a9>

BRINGING HOME THE VICTORY . . .

XC CHAMPS

Congratulations to Ian Beauparlant, Derek Courtney, Charlotte Fritz, Liam Fritz, Molly Ryle, and Owen Walker for their individual performances at the Coaches National Cross Country Championship meet that was run on November 18th in Cincinnati, Ohio. Derek and Owen placed 7th and 23rd respectively, earning a medal in the Minor division for their age group. Molly participating in her final CYO XC meet set a personal record and finished 26th overall in her age group. These St. Norbert athletes were participating as members of the Philadelphia CYO team that finished in second place in the boy's novice division and the minor boy and girl divisions, outpacing 20+ teams from across the United States on a wet and muddy course with wind gusts of 30+ mph! Well done!

TIS THE SEASON . . .

YOU MADE IT SPECIAL

Sometimes it is difficult to understand our outreach endeavors at the parish when you cannot see where the food is going or who gets the toys you bought or who received that gift certificate. Maybe you ask yourself, "Do they really need all those coats and gloves we donate?"

I have had the great privilege of seeing who gets the food, who receives the toys, who gets the gift cards, and who is the beneficiary of the clothes.

It is so gratifying and humbling to see the homeless man's eyes light up when he gets his $25 Wawa gift card

Around Our Parish

Fr. Mike's Elves mysteriously appeared to decorate the Parish Office for Christmas (1). Our landscape artists wonderfully decorated outside and our maintenance team did the trees, lights and Rt. 252 manger scenes. Staff decorated the Church. Thanks to all. The School Nativity was once again an epic production with sheep (2), angels (3 & 5), Mary and a real baby Jesus (4), Magi, Roman soldiers (7), shepherds, elves and an angelic choir (6). "I was amazed that the students memorized all their lines with some long very long pieces. Orchestra, scenes, costumes, all were amazing and a tribute to Ceil Frack, Mary Riisen, volunteer moms, dads and everyone. A grand production which I'm told may be available via video. Stay tuned," said Fr. Mike.

and he cannot stop thanking you.

It is the best present you can get when you see the mother who had to flee her home and is in a shelter with her 2 kids, crying with utter joy at the delivery of gifts for her 2 children. She will indeed have a great Christmas and then she realizes she is also getting a gift and the tears burst forth.

Then we discover a family that has absolutely nothing in their house but 3 mattresses on the floor. We are able — through the generosity of you our parishioners — to provide them with furniture, sheets, linens, food, toys and clothes right before Christmas. That mother who had no reason to dream, now dreams of the great Christmas she and her kids will have.

There are many more touching stories that can be found on our website at <http://parish.stnorbert.org/news-events/st-norbert-parish-news/12-20-2017-you-made-it-special> Also, there are many unsung heroes here at St. Norbert's who work behind the scenes to make these daily miracles possible.

Although they are very humble, we want to give a special thanks this New Year's to our volunteers working especially at:

♦ Bethesda Project which helps house, feed, clothe and especially love the homeless. Thanks Michele Howard and your team.

♦ Wednesday Procurement Program that collects, sorts and distributes food to Birthright, Gaudenzia House, St. Joseph's House, St. Gabes Food Cupboard and 20 local families. Thanks Nina Gal-lacher, Kay Wasson and your team.

♦ Christmas Giving Tree that distributed gifts and gift cards to over 1,300 people and institutions at Christmas. We help them go from despair to sheer happiness. Thanks Marsha and Manny Menendez, Carol Coyne Shannahan and your support team.

♦ St. Gabes Food Cupboard where we help feed over 700 families, provided over 1,000 bags of turkey trimmings, and over 500 turkeys to families at Thanksgiving. Hope not only at Thanksgiving, but all year around. Thanks to Forrest Fisher who heads up the team of delivery drivers.

As Jesus said in Matthew, Chapter 25:40, "...Amen I say to you, whatever you did for one of these least brothers of mine, you did for me."

You, as parishioners, did and do so much for these least brothers of ours daily, weekly, monthly and during the holidays.

Thank you all from the bottom of our hearts.
