EPIPHANY OF THE LORD

In our celebration of the Epiphany, two interwoven themes are present in the readings today. God is beginning something new, and God gathers all of humanity to participate. For Isaiah, God's bright light, manifested in the people of Israel, attracts and summons people from many nations to Jerusalem. In the letter to the Ephesians, God's grace makes the Gentiles co-heirs and co-partners in the gospel. Matthew tells the story of the fulfillment of God's promises to Israel through the birth of Jesus, and simultaneously leading foreigners to share in these same promises. With the birth of Jesus, God chose a particular people, in a particular time and place, to enter most directly into the human story. Today's readings teach that God did this in order to gather all people, all cultures, into unity with God. Like the magi, we are drawn into a journey toward God, becoming co-partners in God's work.

JOURNEY OF TRANSFORMATION

Tradition, poetry, and literature have long reflected upon the story of the magi. The journey of the magi indeed resonates with journeys in our own lives. The journey is a search for a "king," for what or who is of primary importance in life. The seekers lose direction and encounter obstacles and dangers. Searching for a king, the magi first come upon a false king, Herod. The reappearance of the star shows them the true path and leads to the true king.

For Matthew, the journey culminates in the magi's worship of Jesus. They discover a king not clothed in grandeur, but wrapped in humility and simplicity. They begin to re-imagine what true royal power really is. Transformed by the journey, they embrace the humble king, Jesus.

INSIDERS AND OUTSIDERS

An epiphany is a manifestation, a revelation of what was hidden, and often a challenge to change. For Matthew's community, the story of the magi challenged these new Christians, from both Jewish and Gentile origin. The insiders, those rooted in the Jewish scriptures and traditions, might be uncomfortable with the magi, and with God working within Gentile culture to draw them toward God. The outsiders, the Gentiles, would rejoice that God calls them from within their own roots. But they knew that they too were called to their own journey of transformation.

Who are insiders and outsiders today? Some might see strangers as threats to accustomed ways of honoring and serving God. Others might believe that they themselves are too distant, concluding that they cannot be accepted in Christian community, and perhaps tune out God's activity in their lives. Still others might think that belief in Christ serves as another dividing line between people, preventing them from seeing all persons as God's children. The story of the Epiphany reminds us that classifying insiders and outsiders is an illusion, a falsehood arising from a separation from God. When we are united with God, we can only see others as sisters and brothers.

GratitudeMaking Priorities

As we continue our celebration of the Christmas season, we observe today the great Feast of the Epiphany of the Lord. The word "epiphany" means manifestation and throughout the Christmas readings we have seen that the newborn King is eager to reveal Himself to all those willing to accept His presence in their lives.

From poor and humble shepherds to the international group of magi featured in today's Gospel passage, Jesus makes it clear that He offers Himself as a gift to everyone.

We also see throughout the scriptures that God uses what is familiar to us to draw us to Himself. In the case of the magi – astrologers – He uses a star. Our Lord continues to speak to each one of us today. But we must be alert to "hear" and "see" Him in our daily lives.

How can we become better attuned to the ways God is speaking to us? We must strengthen our spiritual "senses" by spending time with the Lord in prayer every single day. In the same way that we set professional goals or exercise goals, we can set spiritual goals to ensure that we are taking the time to listen intentionally to God daily.

When we establish a regular, intentional time for prayer, we will find that the Lord continues to speak to us throughout the day. We will more easily recognize the "stars" He places before us to draw us into closer relationship with Him. We will begin to see that He is indeed present in our lives at every moment.

HOW'S YOUR NEW YEAR GOING?

SPIRITUAL RESOLUTIONS

Hopefully, by now you have started to settle into your New Year's spiritual resolutions for 2019.

Even though it is just six days into the year, I've been able to keep my major resolution going: reading "Into His Likeness: Be Transformed as a Disciple of Christ," by Dr Edward Sri.

I know, I know, this book is our Christmas gift to you our parishioners and while I skimmed it way back in September, I'm now reading it intentionally in anticipation of our Lenten Faithful Connections sessions.

One thing that struck me right out of the box about this book can be found on Page 4 under "Being a Disciple." Dr. Sri writes:

"In the first century world of Jesus, being a disciple was all about one key word: imitation. When a disciple followed a rabbi, he lived with the rabbi, shared meals with the rabbi, prayed with the rabbi, and studied with the rabbi. The goal of the disciple wasn't merely to master his rabbi's teachings, but to imitate the way he lived – the way he prayed, worked, trusted in God's providence, helped the poor, lived friendship, and served the people."

"So if we are going to be disciples of Jesus today, we must aim for a lot more than believing a set of doctrines and following the rules of our faith. We must go deeper and consider what's happening interiorly in our spiritual lives: Are we moving closer to Christ, encountering him anew each day and becoming more like him? Do we intentionally strive to live like him, think like him, and love like him? Being a disciple of Jesus is not about merely going through the motions with our faith – attending Mass, saying some prayers, and avoiding bad things. Following Jesus as a disciple is a whole way of life – his way of life transforming us, his agape love radiating through our lesser philia love."¹

Discipleship is not a one and done action, but a life-long adventure, a way of life. Do you want to go deeper in your spiritual life? Are you feeling pulled along the way? Are you unsure of the next steps to take on your journey to meet Jesus in heaven?

If you answered yes, then let's take this journey together. Dr. Sri's book can help us, but this is not a solo trip. Read the book with me and then join us this Lent as we delve deeper into what it means to be a disciple of Jesus.

NEXT WEEK: Are you a fan or a follower of Jesus?

– Fr. Steve

¹ NOTE: While we moderns have one word for "love," the ancient Greeks had levels of love with agape love the level where one is willing to die for the other as opposed to philia love which is more akin to human friendship.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

WHAT DAY IS IT?

Monday of this week is Christmas Day in Russia and in much of the Orthodox world. This curious difference in schedule has a lot to do with how calendars have been developed and changed over the years. In the year 45 B.C. Julius Caesar gave the empire his Julian Calendar, with the winter solstice on January 6. This put an end to a system in which officials called "pontiffs" were able to tweak the calendar by adding extra days in as needed. He invented two new months at that time, December and January; and in order to correct the mess the pontiffs had made, forced a year of 445 days on the empire in what he named "The Last Year of Confusion." The new months varied in number of days according to a complex schedule, but the calendar was still off by nearly twelve minutes a year, and lost a full day every 130 years. Pope Gregory XIII reformed the calendar in 1583, but not everyone appreciated his efforts. England held out for two hundred years. The year 1700 was a leap year in England, but not in France; they were eleven days apart! George Washington was really born on February 11; when the Gregorian calendar was finally adopted in the English colonies shortly before the Revolution, he had to move his birthday to February 22. Now the calendars are thirteen days apart, which accounts for Russia's Julian calendar Christmas. And Caesar thought he had brought confusion to an end!

FROM YOUR PARISH PASTORAL COUNCIL

RESPONSE TO CRISIS

NOTE: The content of this article is posted on our website.

In response to this Fall's revelations of clerical sexual abuse, your Parish Pastoral Council (PPC) has been diligently working to respond to these disheartening events.

So far, the PPC has responded in the following ways:

LETTERS: The PPC has expressed our concerns in letters and emails to:

- ♦ Pope Francis letter link: <http://parish.stnorbert.org/pdf/Parish%20Council/Final%20Pope%20Letter.pdf>
- ♦ Cardinal Daniel DiNardo President of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) email link: <http://parish.stnorbert.org/pdf/Parish%20Council/Letter%20to%20Cardinal%20DiNardo.pdf>
- ♦ Archbishop Charles Chaput email link: <http://parish.stnorbert.org/pdf/Parish%20Council/Letter%20to%20Archbishop%20Chaput.pdf> Archbishop Chaput response link: <http://parish.stnorbert.org/pdf/Parish%20Council/Letter%20and%20response%20to%20Archbishop%20Chaput.pdf>

PETITION: The PPC has created a special online petition for parishioners and other concerned Catholics to sign that recommends a specific way for our Bishops to provide ongoing public assurance that all instances of potential sexual abuse are being referred to law enforcement authorities and that all credibly accused abusers are being removed from ministry. Link to Petition: <https://www.gopetition.com/petitions/request-for-us-catholic-bishops-to-certify-sex-abuse-reporting.html>

MONTHLY HEALING NIGHTS: The last Thursday of every month, Fr. Arul has been leading a Guided Meditation Holy Hour organized by the Parish Council. These evenings are designed to provide a time for all to pray for those abused, our Church and parish. The evenings are from 7-8 pm in the St. Norbert Church with prayer, Confession, Adoration, and Benediction. The next evening will be Thursday, Jan 31 at 7 pm.

NEXT STEPS

RESPOND: The Parish Council encourages you to review these letters and, perhaps, send your own letter to Pope Francis and our Bishops or forward them these letters.

PARTICIPATE: We encourage you to sign the online Petition and send the link to family members, friends and other concerned Catholics in your network for review and signature. The more signatures we can collect on the Petition, the more force the proposal will have when brought to the attention of the Bishops and those in a position to influence them.

CONTACT: The PPC is continuing to discern, discuss, evaluate and develop additional initiatives on this subject. We also want to hear from you about your concerns, issues, thoughts, response to these initiatives and future efforts. Please contact or talk to:
