BAPTISM OF THE LORD

As we celebrate the Baptism of the Lord, we also honor our own baptism as our initiation into the Christian life and community. In the Gospel, the baptism of Jesus, with his immersion and then emergence from the water, points to his later submission to God at his death, and his emergence from the grave at his resurrection.

This pattern of death and resurrection is our path too, as followers of Jesus. Throughout life, often in small ways, we learn to surrender our limited and self-centered agendas. This surrender often feels like death. The sacrament of Baptism ritually enacts this pattern to remind us of Jesus' death and resurrection, so that we too might embrace the deaths and resurrections of our own lives. As Jesus emerged from the water, he encountered his Father and the Holy Spirit. Like Jesus, we can know we are God's beloved, empowered by the Spirit.

BAPTIZED WITH THE SPIRIT

In today's Gospel according to Luke, when John the Baptist clarified that he was not the expected Messiah, the Christ, he distinguished his baptism with water from the baptism – with the Holy Spirit and fire – that would be offered by Jesus.

John's baptism with water signified the surrender of one's own agenda and the opening of one's heart to God. The baptism with fire and Spirit describes God's power entering and transforming the human heart. When Jesus was baptized in water, he publicly displayed his own full commitment to following God's path for him. When the Spirit descended upon Jesus, he was empowered to begin his work. In effect, Jesus received both kinds of baptism described by John. He would go on to "baptize" those whose hearts were open through his ministry, death, and resurrection. Later, at Pentecost, the new community received a "baptism" of Spirit with tongues of fire.

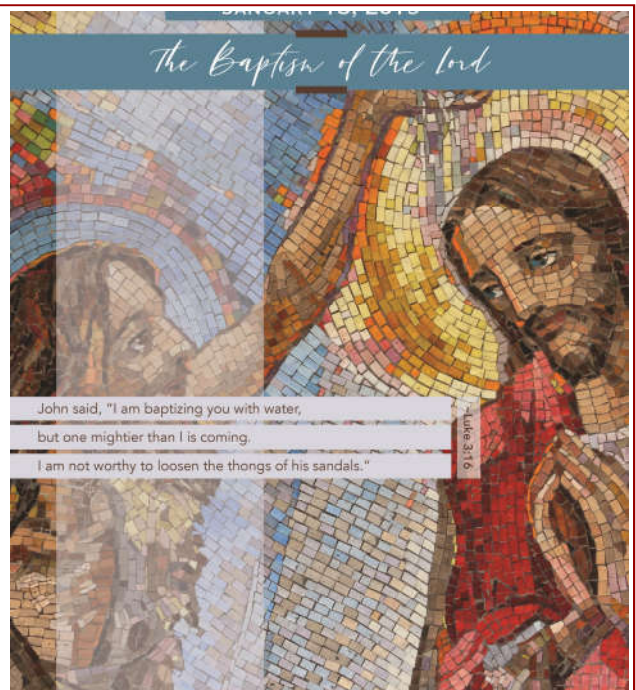

TRINITY AND BAPTISM

This week's Gospel not only tells of Jesus' baptism, but dramatically describes God as the Holy Trinity: Jesus in prayer, the Holy Spirit descending, and the Father's voice from heaven. The nascent church linked its earliest understanding of God as Trinity to Baptism as the initiation into Christian life and community. New Christians were baptized in the name of the Father, Son, and Spirit.

Jesus was proclaimed Beloved by his Father, and empowered by the Holy Spirit to begin his mission. Mission is a sending; to accept a mission is to be sent. After his ministry, death, resurrection, and ascension, Jesus' mission continued through the Spirit beginning at Pentecost. The Father sent the Son and Spirit, who together now send the church into the world. Baptism, then, is the sending of the newly baptized to join the Trinity in this mission. We the baptized are empowered to proclaim that all are God's beloved. Our triune God is already ahead of us in the world, inviting our participation.

In Jesus' Footsteps

As we celebrate this feast of the Baptism of the Lord, we can study His actions at the Jordan River as a powerful example of servant leadership.

We see in Jesus a type of leadership that is characterized by humility and leading by example.

Certainly the sinless Savior did not need a baptism of repentance! But Jesus humbly made Himself one with his people to draw us to Him and create a relationship with us so that we would be open to His teachings and influence.

As a servant leader, we also see that Jesus leads by example. He doesn't just tell the people they need to be baptized. He shows them how and does it Himself to teach them.

To lead like Jesus, we, too, must "walk the walk" and not just "talk the talk." If we want those we lead to be generous and hard-working, then we must show them how to do this by demonstrating generosity and hard work ourselves.

Immediately after His baptism, we learn of the powerful affirmation of the Father who opens the heavens, sends the Holy Spirit upon Jesus in bodily form and says audibly, "This is my beloved Son with whom I am well-pleased." Let us be filled with gratitude for our amazing God and be reminded that when we are grateful followers of Jesus and servant-leaders in imitation of Him, the Father will be well-pleased with us, too.

From Fr. Steve

ARE YOU A . . .

FAN OR A FOLLOWER?

I'm sure if you were like me, you were amazed by the Eagles' "miraculous" come from behind victory over the Chicago Bears last Sunday.

Talk radio, TV news, and sport shows all featured the reactions of the fans as the kick bounced off the goal post. The fans went C-R-A-Z-Y!

Jesus too had many fans and a high approval rating, but as Dr. Edward Sri says in his book "Into His Likeness: Be Transformed as a Disciple of Christ,"

Jesus was looking for more than fans. He is looking for followers:

"There are many of us who wear various Catholic 'badges' – perhaps we attend Catholic conferences, show up at parish events, say certain prayers, enjoy fellowship with other like-minded believers, listen to Catholic radio, and vote for the 'right' political candidate. From all outward appearances, we seem to be very interested in Catholic things. But inside, are we truly committed to the Lord? Have we surrendered our lives to Christ, seeking to fulfill his plan for our lives and not our own?"

"In other words, are we merely fans of Jesus or true followers? As in his own day, Jesus now is looking for souls who are willing to do more than the crowds who are fascinated by all things Catholic. He's looking for those who are willing to do what he wants them to do, say what he wants them to say, go where he wants them to go, and give up whatever he wants them to give up. That's a lot more than being a fan. In other words, Jesus is looking for souls willing to give a total commitment to him as disciples."

Think about that. Are you just as "fanatical" a follower of Jesus as you are of the Eagles...Flyers...golf...movies...hobbies...you name it? Just to be clear, there is nothing wrong with supporting ourselves, family, friends or our favorite sports team(s) or hobbies or avocations, but a follower of Christ imitates Jesus.

"Jesus doesn't just want to be a part of our lives; he wants to be at the very center," says Dr. Sri.

This week, answer this question: "Are You Happy?" Reading pages 13 to 21 of Dr. Sri's book may help you in more ways than one to move from being a fan into a follower of Jesus.

– Fr. Steve

NEXT WEEK: What does following Jesus look like? Read pages 23-31 in "Into His Likeness" as we continue on our journey of walking in Jesus' steps.

If you haven't received a copy of this Christmas book, pick one up in the Narthex for you and a friend.

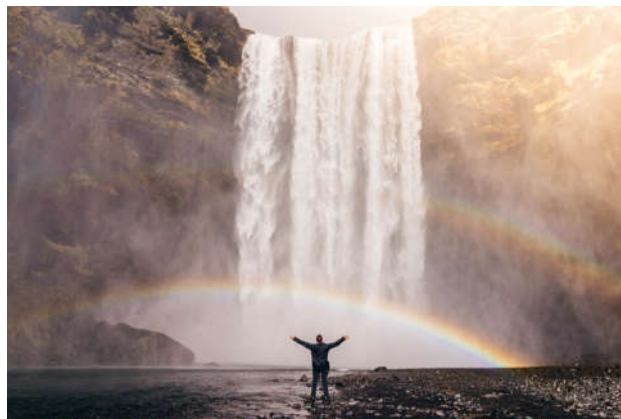

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

LIVING WATER

Merry Christmas! Share that cheerful greeting with some folks today. They may wonder if you have had any Elvis sightings lately, attended Star Trekkie conventions, or were Cleopatra in a previous lifetime.

Despite the skeptics, today is solidly within the Christmas season. In fact, in some strands of the Christian tradition it represents the clearest manifestation of the mystery of the Incarnation. On Christmas Day, for example, the Gospel reading is the Prologue of John's Gospel, which reveals the glory of Christ shining through our humanity precisely in his baptism.

At any rate, this is an ancient feast, celebrated first in Egypt 16 centuries ago. More than most other ancient people, the Egyptians understood the life-giving properties of water. On this day, they drew water from the Nile, so central in the history of their people, and reserved it in honor. Many other places copied the custom, so that St. John Chrysostom wrote of people in Antioch gathering at midnight to collect flowing water into vessels they brought from home since "today there is a blessing on the water."

For many Catholics, the Christmas season ends today with the Baptism of Christ. Others say tradition officially ended 40 days after Christmas on February 2 when Our Lord was presented in the temple or the Purification of the Blessed Virgin Mary commonly called Candlemas.

At home for dinner tonight, decorate the table with beautiful bowls of water and white candles, toast one another with goblets of sparkling water, and light a Christmas candle in the window one last time.

ATTENTION YOUNG ADULTS . . .

BECOMING A DISCIPLE

This January our young adults are exploring what it takes to be a disciple (aka a saint). Each Tuesday at 7 PM in our Parish Office, a different saint is encountered. All young adults are invited. Nothing needed in advance. Just come and bring a friend. Our recent survey said you wanted to hear more about Blessed Chiara Luce Badano, St. Padre Pio, St. Faustina, and St. Maximilian Kolbe. (NOTE: No discussion of New Orleans Saints!) As an aside, the Christmas Hot Chocolate Party was a great hit with nearly 30 participants feasting from the chocolate bar, snacks and holiday music provided by our impromptu Christmas band of Claire, Derek and Stephen. Looking forward to more displays of talent all around. Finally, the parish Christmas book Into His Likeness, by Dr. Edward Sri, will be handed out. I'm hooked after just the introduction. The book nicely ties into our saint study. Here's a line from the intro: "When our Catholic Tradition talks about growing in holiness, pursuing sanctity, and becoming saints, it's basically describing this process of a Christian disciple being conformed to the image of Christ (see Romans 8:29)."
