PALM SUNDAY OF THE PASSION OF THE LORD

Today we prepare to commemorate the death and resurrection of Jesus. Isaiah reminds us of the suffering that Jesus will endure. He says Jesus will not be disgraced or put to shame, but we know that there will be humiliation at the hands of others. The psalm recalls the fear and sorrow as we repeat over and over Jesus' words of anguish and abandonment. Philippians describes Jesus' humility and the exaltation that will follow. But it is Mark who takes us through the last days of Jesus' life, the ordinary and the extraordinary. He describes the meal shared with the one who will betray him; his anguished prayers with friends who cannot stay awake and will later deny him; his treatment at the hands of priests, elders, soldiers; and finally his death and the recognition that truly Jesus is the Son of God.

CONTRASTS

Jesus' last days are an experience of contrasts. The man Isaiah describes is courageous in the face of buffets and beatings. Jesus will not be disgraced or put to shame. Everything the priests, elders, soldiers, and friends do is intended to disgrace and shame Jesus. But they fail. Jesus is not without anguish and sorrow. He knows what it feels like to be abandoned and he expresses that in the garden and on the Cross. Yet still Philippians insists that Jesus will be exalted even though humbled and obedient to the point of death. Mark takes Jesus and us back and forth between strength and fear, between courage and humiliation, between obedience and anguish. What are we to make of these contrasts?

RECOGNITION

Only a centurion, who with the women looking on from a distance sees Jesus breathe his last, knows what we are to make of this. We are to understand, even before the Resurrection, that "this man was the Son of God." How did the centurion know? The centurion knew because he stood facing Jesus, watching him, looking into his face as he died. Though everything was done to strip Jesus of his sense of self, never, ever did he give up his complete and total commitment to God his Father. Even in his anguish and abandonment, he cries out to God. We are left to imagine how his Father answered him, but whatever Jesus heard in his last moments, it left on his face and in his last breath so clear a sign of God's love that one of his crucifiers recognized who he was. The only thing left to Jesus when he died was the abiding certainty of his Father's love. That is a certainty that Jesus took with him to his grave and to his resurrection.

The reward is so great for such little effort. What have we to bear? Some humiliations, losses, sickness, sharp words?...But they will not kill us! The martyrs suffered much more than that...Or temptations? But by confidence in God and distrust of ourselves, we can over come them.

— ST. JOHN VIANNEY

Gratitude

“Emptied Himself”

In his letter to the Philippians, our Second Reading on this Palm Sunday, St. Paul writes, “...he emptied himself, taking the form of a slave, coming in human likeness; and found human in appearance, he humbled himself, becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross.” Everything we hear today and during Holy Week relates to this statement.

For some 2,000 years scholars and theologians have debated what the phrase “emptied himself” means. As is sometimes the case, in the midst of these debates and discussions they lose focus of what is really Paul’s point and teaching perhaps. One of the things Paul might be trying to get us to think about is emptying ourselves to a certain extent. If you have ever been a retreat or been part of a spiritual exercise, you may be encouraged to “empty yourself” so you are prepared to in reality add something.

Jesus gave much up to be the Son of Man. At this point in our Lenten journey, we need to grasp that He gave up His life so that we might have life. That is what should be on our minds as we hear the Passion today and as we continue and complete our own preparation for Christ’s resurrection on Easter.

Have you ever heard someone say about someone else “He (or she) is so full of himself (or herself)?” Jesus was not “full of Himself.” He emptied Himself, and that is something we, too, must strive to do to be His disciple.

Pope Francis

DEBUTING MAY 18 . . .

POPE FRANCIS LIVE

On the five year anniversary of Pope Francis' becoming the 266th pontiff of the Catholic Church on March 13, the Vatican and three-time Academy Award nominee director Wim Wenders announced a new documentary called: Pope Francis – A Man of His Word.

According to the Vatican, "This a personal journey with Pope Francis — rather than a biographical documentary — with the Pope in his own words talking about his ideas, his message, his work of reform and his answers to today's global questions from death, social justice, immigration, ecology, wealth inequality, materialism, and the role of the family.

"The film's direct-to-camera visual and narrative concepts engage the audience face-to-face with the Pope, creating a dialogue between him and, literally, the world. Taking questions from people of all walks of life, Pope Francis responds to farmers and workers, refugees, children and the elderly, prison inmates, and those who live in favelas and migrant camps. All these voices and faces are a cross section of humanity that join in a conversation with Pope Francis."

The film, to be released to theaters on May 18, "shows Pope Francis on his many journeys around the world, with footage of him speaking at the United Nations, addressing the Congress of the United States, mourning with those gathered at Ground Zero and at Yad Vashem, the World Holocaust Remembrance Center in Jerusalem. He speaks to prisoners in correctional facilities and to refugees in Mediterranean camps. We see him travel to the Holy Land (Palestine and Israel) as well as to Africa, South America and Asia.

"There is also a presence of Saint Francis in the film, connecting back to the pope's namesake, through accounts of legendary moments in the Saint's own life as a reformer and ecologist.

"In an era of deep distrust of politicians and people in power, when lies and corruption and alternative facts are the order of the day, Pope Francis - A Man of His Word shows us a person who lives what he preaches and who has gained the trust of people of all faith traditions and cultures across the world."

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

"ROAD OF SORROWS"

For many centuries, Christian pilgrims have longed to walk in the footsteps of Jesus, and on Passion Sunday the eyes of the world are on the Via Dolorosa, the "Road of Sorrows," in Jerusalem. As soon as it became safe for Christians to worship in public in the fourth century, a way was marked out. It was changed a few times over the years, and today's usual route was sketched by the Franciscans 600 years ago, although Anglicans and Byzantines (Eastern Orthodox) have their own unique detours. Friday is the most favored day, although it is crowded every day. Almost everyone begins at the Lion's Gate in the Muslim

Quarter and ends at the Church of the Holy Sepulcher. It's less than a quarter mile, but it threads its way through crowded markets with souvenir shops and fast-food vendors. There are, just as in your parish church, 14 stations along the way. The exact spots are not known, but what matters is the pilgrim's unique ability to see even an ordinary road in a teeming city as something more than meets the eye.

IT'S NOT THE END BUT...

JUST THE BEGINNING

As we come to the close of Lent and the beginning of Holy Week and our Tridium celebration, I want you to think about your Journey To Holiness these past six weeks and "Jesus – The Reason For My Journey." If you're like me, you can't wait for a good piece of chocolate or some other thing you gave up for Lent. But the real journey this Lent has just begun. While you probably gave up something, you also hopefully added something too. Maybe it was going to daily Mass once a week. Why stop? If you started your day reading your Bible or may viewing one of the many quick daily YouTube reflections or with prayer, consider continuing. After depositing your Rice Bowl change in the Good Friday collection for the poor, think about ongoing alms giving or maybe donating one of your most important treasures – your time – to one of our numerous liturgy, outreach, service, formation, community or evangelization efforts. I encourage you to think about Easter as not the end, but the continuation of your Journey To Holiness. Now that you have started, why not exercise your spiritually just as religiously as your daily workout at the gym. Our Journey To Holiness has begun and continues for the rest of your life. God Bless. – Fr. Mike

THE LIFE OF PAUL

Paul, Apostle of Christ is a new first run theater film about the life of St. Paul starring James Caviezel who plays the Apostle Luke (left in photo above) and James Faulkner (right) who plays St. Paul. The movie opened last Friday, March 23 at local theaters Regal Oaks Stadium, UA King of Prussia and Regal Plymouth Meeting. The film is set in Rome where Paul is in prison because he is a threat to the empire and the Emperor Nero. As he awaits execution, Luke writes his Gospel and accompanies Paul. According to the film's producers, "Paul, Apostle of Christ is the first (and only) theatrical feature film about the life of Paul—one of the most important people in human history, and the most significant early convert to Christianity. ... This is not your typical faith film. Writer and director, Andrew Hyatt, took great pains to ensure biblical accuracy, using Scripture as the primary reference when writing the script. [The film was] ...screened by scholars and pastors to ensure accurate historical and scriptural treatment of the texts. And the movie was filmed on site in Malta, the very island where Paul the apostle was bitten by a poisonous viper and survived."
