PENTECOST SUNDAY

The feast of Pentecost invites us to reflect prayerfully upon the Holy Spirit. Our readings today reveal three distinct views of the Holy Spirit. In Acts, the Spirit moves powerfully and unpredictably, sometimes in disorienting ways, to renew the world. In Paul, the Spirit unites the church in Jesus into one body, and provides many varied and complementary gifts to the church. In John, the Spirit continues the healing and forgiving presence of Jesus, and empowers his followers to extend the ministry of Jesus to the whole world. Pentecost teaches us that the Holy Spirit speaks and acts in many ways: to comfort us, to shake us up, and to open us to something new. Always, the Spirit is communicating God's love. Just like those who first heard God's proclamation in many languages, we might hear the Spirit who penetrates our hearts, speaking the many languages of love.

ENCOUNTERING CULTURE

We listen today, in Acts, of how very diverse individuals, all Jewish, heard the proclamation of Jesus in their own languages. These were likely diaspora Jews who had lived in other lands and had learned different languages and cultures. Throughout the book, the author of Acts is hinting at what will happen later.

The Good News will be received by different peoples and cultures. There will be dialogue between Jesus' message and each culture, and the message will take root within the culture. Many persons will reject Jesus, but those who accept him will learn to proclaim Jesus, and join in the Spirit's work of transforming the culture.

We too are invited to join God's mission in our own culture, approaching with both humility and boldness. We are to be servants, companions, and sometimes prophets, always with charity and openness. The Spirit calls us both to engage in dialogue with others and to proclaim Jesus with our lives.

GIFTS TO BE SHARED

Through Paul's ministry in Corinth, the Christian community there had sprung up quickly. A variety of spiritual gifts were enthusiastically shared. But that variety led to arguments among them. Some believed that some gifts, such as speaking in tongues, were more important. Those with certain gifts gained honor and status in the community. In his letter to the Corinthians, Paul challenged this. He wrote that all are gifted, and all gifts come from the Holy Spirit. The gifts, though quite varied, are fundamentally equal in importance. They have one shared purpose, to proclaim and live the good news of Jesus.

Each of us is invited to consider how the Spirit has given us gifts within the Church to participate in God's mission in the world. Our gifts are valuable and distinctly ours. But they are no better or worse than the gifts of others. All are given to serve our common purpose. With both humility and boldness, let us share our gifts.

OUR VISION

St. Norbert Parish aspires to become one in Christ as a community of fervent disciples, who listen attentively for the guidance of the Holy Spirit, and who lovingly embrace Jesus, present in the poor, the alienated and the spiritually hungry.

One Sent Forth

Today is Pentecost Sunday, the 50th day after Easter (counting both Easter Sunday and today).

Pentecost is often called "the birthday of the Church." As we hear in Holy Scripture, today is the day that the Holy Spirit descended upon Jesus' followers, and with that Jesus' mission on earth was completed.

Jesus calls His followers and literally all of us to be missionaries. The Latin root word for "missionary" is derived from the original Greek word apostolos, which meant "one sent forth." Obviously, we get the word "apostle" from that as well. It is further defined as one who attempts to persuade or convert. It involves the "apostle" or "disciple" working outside of the community.

When Jesus spoke these words, "As the Father has sent me, so I send you." That includes each and every one of us. We, too, are sent.

Many times we have reiterated that being sent means that we live out our Catholic faith in everything we do. That is the best way to evangelize, to let those around us know what it means to be a Christian and a follower of Christ and His disciple.

The United States Conference of Catholic Bishops made the following statement about what it means to evangelize: "Here, there are two elements of evangelization at work: 1) Witness, which is the simple living out of the faith; 2) Sharing, which is spreading the Good News of Jesus."

Do we follow the admonitions given us by the Lord? Are we examples of what it means to be a Catholic and Christian? Do we truly share the Good News?

Journey To Holiness

WHY IS ST. NORBERT CALLED . . .

MINISTER OF CONCORD?

St. Norbert was born of noble Frankish and German heritage.<sup>1</sup> He was educated at the Church of St. Victor in Xanten and schooled in literature and ways of the royal court. He was wealthy, handsome and tall. He became a subdeacon, but was more interested in the intrigue of the emperor's court.

Norbert's affability and eloquence won him admirers and friends and he was more infatuated with the esteem of the court than proclaiming the glory of God. His biographer says of him, he "had no time for piety and quiet" and he "lived his life according to his own desires."

He witnessed first hand the workings of court life when the Emperor Henry V mistreated Pope Paschal II in Rome in 1111. The court no longer held an appeal for Norbert "where the emperor's arrogance took the place of law." He left the court and later that year as he was riding with a servant, a lightning bolt struck the ground throwing Norbert from his horse. "Shaken, he asked, 'Lord what do you want me to do?' In response, he seemed to hear these words from Psalm 34, 'Turn from evil and do good; seek peace and pursue it.' Norbert underwent a profound conversion."

Norbert changed his life seeking ordination to the priesthood, gave away his fortune to the poor, traveled as a preacher with "no purse, no sandals or two tunics" sharing, teaching and proclaiming Jesus' message.

In his travels, he became known as a "minister of peace and concord," because "he had the gift of reconciling people and establishing peace between feuding parties."

At that time in history, the Mass was not celebrated every day, but St. Norbert loved the Eucharist – that's why many paintings and statues show him elevating the host – and preached "while his heart was overflowing with the love he had drawn from intimate contact with Christ. The Acts of the Apostles record how the first Christians 'devoted themselves to the apostles' teaching and fellowship, to the breaking of bread and the prayers,' (2:42), and that 'the whole group of those who believed were of one heart and soul'" (4:32).

St. Norbert, through his life and example, used his fervency for Jesus and discipling of others to attract and found a new religious community, our Norbertine fathers.

PARISH COUNCIL NOMINEES

Brian Fila

My parents sent me to St. Norbert's for Kindergarten through 8th grade, so I have been coming to Mass here for as long as I can remember. After St. Norbert's school I went to Bishop Shanahan, where I was able to continue my Catholic education. It was there that my faith started to become real. Following High School, I attended Old Dominion University. It was at this time where I had to make my faith my own, as it was a state school with very few practicing Catholics and plenty of opportunities to stray. Eventually, I started getting involved with campus ministry: becoming a student leader, leading a small group, becoming a Communion minister and participating in multiple retreats. I also had the opportunity to attend mission trips over my school breaks which I believe helped put things in perspective for me and helped me to realize how blessed I am. I met my fiancé at school and remained in Virginia after graduating until I felt I was ready to come home. My time in Virginia definitely wasn't a straight path to holiness. I had many ups and downs in my faith, but I believe I needed the experiences I've had and the lessons I've learned. Once home, I wanted to become more involved in the parish I grew up in. I have been in multiple small groups, most recently "That Man is You!" as well as becoming a Communion minister. I am honored to even be considered as a candidate for parish council. I think I can learn from and grow with the members of this parish. Currently, I work for a consulting firm and have had some experience with how a business grows and operates. Building a business can have many similarities to growing a parish in that you must be willing to listen to people, be brutally honest and aware of people's changing needs.

Vision For Our Parish: St. Norbert's is already one of the most vibrant parishes in the area, but there is always room for improvement. We can become more welcoming to newcomers and current parishioners alike as well as create more diverse ways for people to grow in their faith, as everyone encounters Jesus differently. With the current state of the world, we should strive to be more empathetic to people's differences, find out what people need, and create an environment that people will want to keep coming back to.

David Makowicz

It has been both a blessing and an honor to serve on the Parish Pastoral Council for the past three years. I appreciate the heavy weight our pastor carries in leading a large congregation with diverse spiritual needs. I believe my skill set from business operations contributes to the Parish Council as we discuss larger issues facing the parish.

My family joined the parish in 2001. Since that time, we have witnessed the amazing growth of our parish into the vibrant body of Christ it is today. It is important we continue to steward our many gifts through the service of our various ministries in carrying out our parish vision. It is important to me, personally, that we continue our efforts at welcoming all people to join us in worship and to share their gifts with their fellow parishioners. My family continues to be blessed in many ways by all of you, particularly in your genuine acceptance of our family's special needs.

Vision For Our Parish: The particular journey we walk as a family is made easier knowing we travel it together with people who love the Lord and show His love to us. I hope you will entrust me with another three years of service to our community.

Tobey Mathas

Three years ago, I was away from the church, and it is because of God working through the parish of St. Norbert that I am now writing this letter. I grew up in St. Andrew Parish in Newtown, but stopped going to Mass while in college. I became a teacher, got married outside the church, and did not seek to renew my faith. God somehow called me to teach in a Catholic school and there I met people who were so strong in their faith I felt like an outsider. Because of my volunteer work with the Legacy of Life Foundation (LOLF), I was offered a job in development. I accepted so I could help mothers who were considering abortion say yes to life. It was there my conversion began. About 3 years ago, St. Norbert had a fundraiser for LOLF, and I came to speak at Mass. I didn't know then that it was the next stop on my conversion journey. Later, I met someone who wanted to get married and share in my faith. We were attending Mass near his home, but we were ready to give up. It was then we remembered AbbeyFest, and St. Norbert. My fiancé, Jim and my daughter, Alegra stepped out in faith with me to join St. Norbert about a year ago. We were welcomed with open arms into the incredible RCIA program so that Jim, could become Catholic. I was converted, too, and we are both serving as extraordinary ministers of Holy Communion. During this time I was accepted as Director of Development into the community of Emmaus Home, a Catholic nonprofit serving adults with intellectual disabilities, based on the theology of Jean Vanier.

Vision For Our Parish: My vision for the parish is to help St. Norbert more fully recognize the phenomenal gifts it has and use them to bring even more lost sheep back home.

Jeanne Oswald

In 2015, my husband Russ and I left Yardley, PA, and moved to Paoli in order to downsize and be closer to two of our four children and four of our eight grandchildren. When we told our parish priest in Yardley where we were moving, he told us that St. Norbert Parish is a truly special place, and we knew almost immediately that he was right. Two of our children and their families are now members of the parish as well. Becoming a member of this parish has been a true blessing for me and my faith has grown immeasurably. I was raised as a Lutheran and converted to Catholicism in college. I went on to earn a doctorate in education at Rutgers University, which prepared me for a 35-year career, ultimately serving as the Executive Director of New Jersey's state higher education agency. I also had the honor of serving as a member and Chairperson of the NJ Special Olympics Board of Directors. My work with Special Olympics and subsequent experience working with underserved, disadvantaged youth and adults brought me closer to God and my faith than I had ever been. But it was not until I got involved with the St. Norbert Parish that I truly felt God working in me more each day. I have volunteered in the parish in various ways since the spring of 2015, including participation in Fervent Disciple discussions and a weekly faith sharing group. I serve each week as an outreach driver to procure food for those in need, I assist with food distribution, and I have volunteered at AbbeyFest and Lenten service days. For the past two years, I have also served as a co-chair for Lenten small groups, and I cherish the sharing and faith experience that those groups provide.

Vision For Our Parish: In the coming years, my vision is to expand St. Norbert's reach and open even more hearts and minds to God's love and message. I would be honored to serve on the Parish Pastoral Council to help bring the parish closer to its vision by providing opportunities, encouragement, and a spiritual environment for all to encounter our Lord.
