29TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

It is a scene that could be taken from the daily news feed. A young upstart is confronted by two established leaders. While holding opposing views on many issues, the two band together in an attempt to trap the newcomer. This is not a story from the daily news, however. The newcomer is Jesus in today's Gospel passage. The two established leaders, one a Pharisee and the other a Herodian, think they can trap Jesus by posing a question about the payment of taxes. No matter how he might respond to their question, they would have the means to discredit him. Jesus sees through their hypocrisy and does not fall into their trap. His response gets at the heart of what is truly important: "Then repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God."

WHAT BELONGS TO GOD?

God creates all that is. Each of us is a marvelous creation of God. All that we have is created through the grace of God and the ways in which we humans use the gifts that have been given to use by God. Thinking about Jesus' question from this perspective leads us to ask ourselves what belongs to God. As the Lord tells Cyrus in today's first reading, each of us is called by name. We belong to God. If we are truly honest in our reflection, the conclusion we will reach is that everything is God's. We are to be good stewards of it all. Jesus' instruction to give "to God what belongs to God" calls us to take seriously the realization that all we are, have, and will be is a gift from God, given to us in trust, that we might use it to further God's kingdom on earth.

THERE IS NO GOD BESIDES ME

Most of us can admit that we do not readily think of our lives and possessions as belonging to God. Doing so calls us to think much more deeply about how we use our time, material goods, talents, and gifts in our daily lives. When we take to heart that everything that we are and have belongs to God, we learn to put God first. No longer can materialism or worldly success be our god, nor the unbounded activity that fills much of our lives. Each of us has been "loved and chosen" by God to bring Christ's presence to the world, through the power and inspiration of the Holy Spirit (see 1 Thessalonians 1:4). We do this by giving what belongs to God back to God through the proper use of our lives, gifts, and resources.

OUR VISION

St. Norbert Parish aspires to become one in Christ as a community of fervent disciples, who listen attentively for the guidance of the Holy Spirit, and who lovingly embrace Jesus, present in the poor, the alienated and the spiritually hungry.

Stewardship

God's Image?

The last line of today's Gospel Reading from St. Matthew contains one of the more well known of Jesus' quotes. When asked a bit of a trick question by the Pharisees, "Is it lawful to pay the census tax to Caesar or not?" Jesus responds by asking them whose image is on their Roman coins, to which they respond simply "Caesar's."

Jesus' response to their reply is known to most of us, "Then repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God." The Lord's answer is far more perceptive than we might think, and it gives another message to us, one we must always remember. If we are followers of Christ, and if we work to be His disciple, the Lord might ask us, "Whose image is on your soul?" We have learned in the First Chapter of Genesis that God created us in His image.

The coin may be stamped with Caesar's image, but each of us is stamped with God's image. Thus, Jesus is implying that the coin may be Caesar's, but each of us belongs to God. In that regard we should be striving to be all those things to which Jesus called us.

That is in effect what a stewardship way of life is — recognizing that God is in each of us, we are to place ourselves in service to God and to one another. That is what is really meant by "Then repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God."

Pastor's Pulpit

A VERY UNFORTUNATE HAPPENING: PLEASE PRAY

On Sunday Oct 8th at the 11:30 AM Mass, during the distribution of Communion, Fr. Steve gave the Eucharist to a young man who raised the Host in the air and then threw it to the ground. He stepped on it and then walked out of the church. This act was a desecration of the Eucharist and a serious and troubling event.

A woman parishioner immediately knelt, picked up the Host, and consumed Our Lord.

Fr. Steve deserves much credit for maintaining his composure during this incident and we thank the parishioner, who is known to us, for her rapid response. Immediately following Communion, Fr. Steve spoke to the people in the church and asked them to pray for the young man who seemed by some to be upset.

In my 47 years of priesthood this is a first for me, a very troubling first. The public desecration of the Eucharist is a very serious and disturbing event, but it is important to note that the individual did not threaten Fr. Steve or any parishioners during the incident.

I share this with you to let you know that we are aware of this individual, we have looked into the event and contacted police out of an abundance of caution. The police have contacted and met with the individual. The police informed him that he is not to return to St. Norbert Church.

This past weekend, we have met with the Eucharistic Ministers, Ushers, Greeters and Lectors to review how to respond to desecration of the Host and procedures for people who disrupt our services. We have shared a picture of the individual with Ushers, Greeters and Communion Ministers.

A few members of the parish who know this individual and have spoken with him. The young man is not Catholic. He has expressed that he has no interest in the Catholic Church.

Let us pray for this young man. Please pray that he finds peace in the God who loves him. — Fr. Mike

† GRATITUDE †

AS Pastor of Saint Norbert Parish, I wish to express my humble and prayerful thank you to all who responded with such prayerful support and willingness to be present some time before each Parish Mass and receive instructions this past weekend from Deacon John regarding the desecration incident (see article at left) on Sunday, Oct 8.

The concern expressed by the Communion Ministers, Ushers, Greeters and those present for that instruction period was moving to say the least.

Many expressed their prayers for the individual who, for whatever reason, needed to express his disdain for the Eucharist. I would also like to thank personally Vince Schiavone for his help and direction. Who knew such a “quiet man” had such a helpful background. Ciao Vincenzo!

I am sure this is not the end of such an incident, so all need to be very vigilant. Please call the Parish Office if you feel there is something you see that is troubling in the Narthex, Church, the Oratory, parking lot or anywhere on our campus.

I pray that this young man finds peace with himself and his God. He is always free to call and speak to one of the priests or deacons. Let us pray for one another.

Thank You to all,
— Fr. Mike

SHARE: EVERYTHING BELONGS TO GOD

What belongs to God? Everything! Where do we draw the line between Church and state? What belongs to God is a commitment that goes beyond civil authority. We who believe in God have a responsibility to stand firm in what we truly believe in our Christian Catholic principles. This week, in my homily, we will consider “Share” in our RESPOND series. To be a Fervent Disciple means we need to listen, pray and act as “...a community of fervent disciples, who listen attentively for the guidance of the Holy Spirit, and who lovingly embrace Jesus, present in the poor, the alienated and the spiritually hungry.” View this preview from me at StNorbert.org Resource Center, homilies or at: <https://drive.google.com/file/d/oB82kO17Y4JmPS1ozTm50NW1PLVE/view>

NEXT WEEKEND AFTER ALL MASSES . . .

CONFESSION WEEKEND

To make the Sacrament of Confession more accessible and as part of our RESPOND: Deepening Discipleship theme, we will offer Reconciliation before and after ALL Masses next weekend Oct 28-29.

Why do we confess our sins?¹ Fr. James Martin says that “Confession is not so much about how bad you are but about how good God is.” Fr. Anthony Gerber suggests that “The priest is like a physician: when you go to the doctor, you tell him what has been hurting you and with more or less detail so that he knows how best to heal you. And remember: he has seen many patients with the same symptoms. Trust him, listen to his counsel, and you’ll get better soon!” Finally, Fr. Matthew Schneider says, “For many people, the biggest improvement in confession would be switching from viewing it as an obligatory, abstract listing of sins to the renewal of a relationship with God.” Thus, we call it Reconciliation. Join us next weekend as we renew, reconnect and RESPOND to “the sacrament of forgiveness” where God provides us with “pardon and peace” Catechism of the Catholic Church 1424.

“Addiction is pure evil. From a parent's perspective, it's your worst nightmare, and it decimates families,” said Mark Christmyer in the latest CatholicPhilly.com installment on “Catholics mobilizing against the Drug Crisis.”

The article and accompanying podcast features the Gethsemani Way addictions effort here at St. Norbert's. Martin K who heads up Gethsemani Way's monthly 12 Step Spirituality Nights for those in AA-type recovery programs added, “Father Mike Lee, our pastor, has created a spiritual triage and growth center here [at St. Norbert's]. It's a place where we recognize that we are all broken, and we come for healing.” Gethsemani Way also includes monthly Addictions Prayer Nights co-led by Lisa Corcoran which are open to all and where we pray for loved ones, family, and friends battling addictions. In closing Mark added, “We are the Body of Christ. Encounter Jesus in a special way during our RESPOND series with our annual 40 Hours Eucharistic Adoration Nov 5, 6 & 7. For over 500 years, the Blessed Sacrament has been solemnly exposed outside of the tabernacle to be adored by us for 40 consecutive hours of prayer. Why 40 Hours? The 40 hours signify the 40 days of rain in the Book of Noah, 40 years the Jews wandered in the desert, Jesus' 40 days of fasting in the desert, and the 40 hours between Jesus' burial and resurrection. Make your plans now to attend.

Around Our Parish

To provide a Halloween Treat for the Bethesda Project residents, the CaFFE 6th Grade Confirmation service project solicited donated candy and prepared Halloween goody packets. Our students also colored Halloween theme prints for residents to decorate their spaces (1). Last weekend's 100th anniversary of Our Lady of Fatima's final Apparition was a wonderful celebration with our 30 people consecrating or reconsecrating themselves to Mary at the 9 am Mass (2) along with more at the 1:30 pm Spanish Mass (3). On Saturday, over 30 people prayed a noon Rosary at the Rt. 252 Grotto. This year's Pink Out for Breast Cancer Awareness day at the school generated over $1,400 to Unite for Her which helps women get through their breast cancer treatments and various therapies (4).
