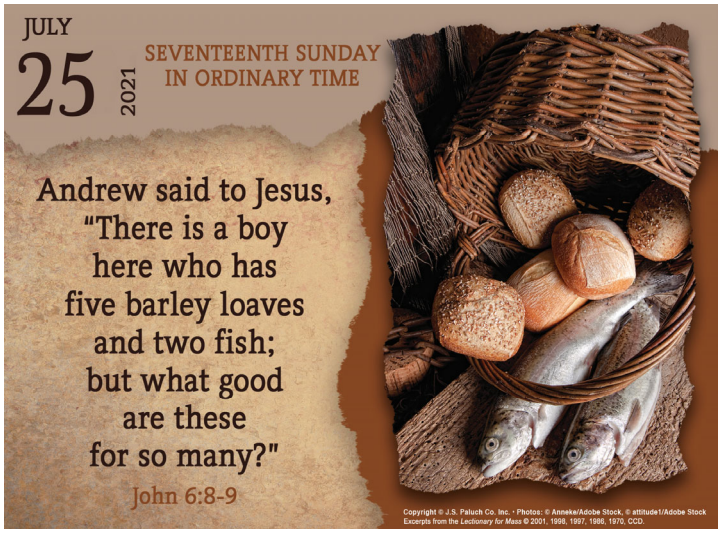
Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Today's message could be summed up in psalm 145, "The hand of the Lord feeds us, he answers all our needs." Each reading shows how carefully God feeds and cares for us, in an up-close and personal fashion. Elisha fed the crowd from twenty barley loaves. Jesus blessed a few loaves and thousands were fed. Perhaps this seems far-fetched, but we read stories in the news about chefs taking the leftovers from fancy restaurants and feeding many people in a soup kitchen. As a schoolgirl, one of my favorite stories was "Stone Soup," the tale of a couple of war-weary soldiers convincing the people of a frightened and starving little country village to bring out their meager supplies and share them to make a marvelous soup to feed the town. The second reading asks us to "Consider well our call." How do we respond to those in need around us?

MIRACLE OR MAGIC?



It can be easy to just say, "Oh yes, this is the story of the miracle of the multiplication of the loaves and fishes, when everybody decided to share the bits of food they had." But how much of it is really about feeding the crowds? "Jesus said to Philip, 'Where can we buy enough food for them to eat?' He said this to test him, because he knew what he was going to do." It must have been very hard to trust Jesus, especially when the disciples often didn't understand him. This year has been challenging for us, too, to trust that God will provide, and also challenging for us to ask for help.

In the Rule of Saint Benedict, there is a chapter called "The assignment of impossible tasks." It says, in essence, that when your superior tells you to do something impossible, it is fine to go talk to them about it, but in the end you may still be asked to do this task. In what situations are we called to trust? When are we asked to act in faith or to do the impossible task?

HOW WILL WE KNOW WE ARE DOING THE RIGHT THING?

Miracles are seldom as obvious as the multiplication of loaves and fishes. Many years ago, I overheard a family conversation in a restaurant at the end of a long holiday weekend. At the register was one of those collection jars saying, "For just fifty cents a day you can feed a child." The little girl asked her folks about it and they explained it. She said, "I have money left from my weekend, could I put it in the jar?" The parents said yes and let her go on the adventure for herself. She came back and sat down, and they chatted some more. She said, "If fifty cents feeds a child for a day, then I was able to feed one for three days, because I had $1.50 left from the weekend." When we follow this child's example and go beyond the minimum, when we give all we can, we know we are doing the right thing, and we have understood the test that Jesus posed to Philip so long ago.

Our Faith

The Preface Dialogue

"Lift up your hearts." "We lift them up to the Lord." "Let us give thanks to the Lord our God." "It is right to give him thanks and praise." With this ancient dialogue we enter the Eucharistic Prayer, the heart of the Mass. These venerable words have been part of the Christian liturgy almost from the beginning—by the time of Hippolytus of Rome (c. 215) they were already fixed in the liturgy.

Several times during the Mass the priest has invited us to pray. There is something different here. We are invited to be "lifted up," to ascend, to climb the Lord's mountain, as it were, to go to a new place for this most solemn part of the Mass. And we are invited to a new frame of mind, a sense of joy, of focused dedication: our hearts must not be cast down, but lifted up, and lifted to the Lord. Why? Because we are going to give thanks—we are going to "eucharist!" It is right and just that we do this.

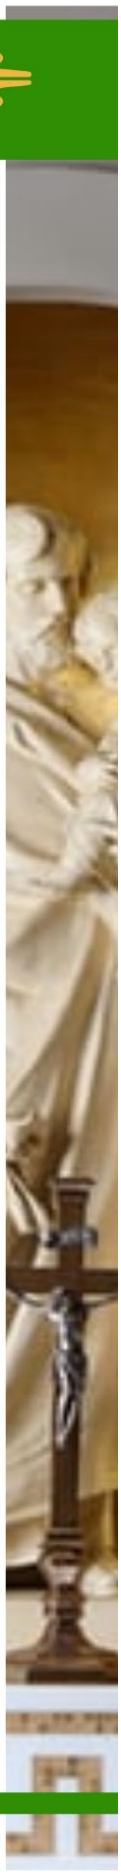
LETTER FROM OUR PASTOR



Friends July 25 2021

On December 8, 2020, the 150th anniversary of the declaration of St. Joseph as Patron of the Universal Church, Pope Francis declared a "Year to St. Joseph." Joseph, the foster-father of Jesus, courageously accepted His mission to nurture and protect the Son of God. Joseph, who opened his heart to the promptings of the Holy Spirit

Joseph, who goes unnoticed, a daily discreet and hidden presence. An intercessor, support, and guide in times of trouble. A man who listened and then acted on the word of God. To take Mary as his wife even after finding out she conceived from someone other than him. Who embraced the earthly role as foster father of Jesus. Who quietly and humbly allowed the Holy Spirit to guide him to protect the young Savior of the world. Saint Joseph has been the silent protector of the Church since the beginning.

As we continue the S.T.E.P.S. of our Faith journey, we now focus on 'P' for practice. Following Jesus means growing in relationship with Him and spending time daily with God. We practice by faithfully attending Mass and receiving the Sacraments, establishing a consistent prayer life. Reading scripture every day and creating a quiet space to listen attentively for the voice of God. Practice helps build and strengthen our relationship with the living God.

Let's make time to reflect, meditate and pray about what the foster father means in our Faith life. I invite you to partake in a unique 44-day consecration to Saint Joseph beginning on July 26 and concluding on September 7. Consecrations are a form of devotion to helping us grow closer to God. The Parish communications team has put together 44 short videos for reflection each day. You may access these videos on the Parish website. These reflections come from the book titled: "Consecration to Jesus through Saint Joseph. The book is available at the parish office and in the Narthex of the Church.

This consecration is a great way to help us practice our Faith. It begins on July 26 and concludes on Wednesday September 8 as we celebrate the Consecration and the Nativity of Mary feast day together in the Church.

One more thing, view Fr. Jim Rodia's video on life in the time of Saint Joseph, which will be available soon. Fr. Jim's video will be another good resource to help contemplate the Jesus through Saint Joseph.

Together in Faith, let's practice growing closer to Jesus and trusting in God's care for us. Saint Joseph, pray for us!

God Bless You!

Fr. Steve

Following the Footsteps of Jesus

PRACTICING TOGETHER: THE COMMUNION OF SAINTS

BY CHARLIE BATES

As Catholics, we believe the life of faith is not meant to be lived alone. We know that God is present to us in and through one another. God shows himself not only in those around us today, but those through those who have gone before us. That's why our tradition values the lives of the saints. Their example and spiritual friendship help us on our own faith journey—and they will be the ones waiting for us when our journey is complete. The Communion of Saints, simply put, "is the Church" – on earth and in heaven (CCC 946).

This year, we are focusing on one saint in particular. Pope Francis has declared "the Year of St. Joseph" from December 8, 2020 – December 8, 2021 in the Church throughout the world. Of course, devotion to St. Joseph isn't new – he was declared the patron saint of the whole church in 1870, and there are 9 parishes named for him in our diocese alone. But Pope Francis was inspired to reflect more on the life of St. Joseph during the lockdown.

Check out his reflection on the next page and join us in our own!

Joseph – a creatively courageous father

"If the first stage of all true interior healing is to accept our personal history and embrace even the things in life that we did not choose, we must now add another important element: creative courage. This emerges especially in the way we deal with difficulties. In the face of difficulty, we can either give up and walk away, or somehow engage with it. At times, difficulties bring out resources we did not even think we had.

As we read the infancy narratives, we may often wonder why God did not act in a more direct and clear way. Yet God acts through events and people. Joseph was the man chosen by God to guide the beginnings of the history of redemption. He was the true "miracle" by which God saves the child and his mother. God acted by trusting in Joseph's creative courage. Arriving in Bethlehem and finding no lodging where Mary could give birth, Joseph took a stable and, as best he could, turned it into a welcoming home for the Son of God come into the world (cf. Lk 2:6-7). Faced with imminent danger from Herod, who wanted to kill the child, Joseph was warned once again in a dream to protect the child, and rose in the middle of the night to prepare the flight into Egypt (cf. Mt 2:13-14).

A superficial reading of these stories can often give the impression that the world is at the mercy of the strong and mighty, but the "good news" of the Gospel consists in showing that, for all the arrogance and violence of worldly powers, God always finds a way to carry out his saving plan. So too, our lives may at times seem to be at the mercy of the powerful, but the Gospel shows us what counts. God always finds a way to save us, provided we show the same creative courage as the carpenter of Nazareth, who was able to turn a problem into a possibility by trusting always in divine providence.

If at times God seems not to help us, surely this does not mean that we have been abandoned, but instead are being trusted to plan, to be creative, and to find solutions ourselves."

from Pope Francis, Patris Corde (With a Father's Heart), section 5
