Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

The "fulfilled in your hearing" statement of Jesus today is also the conclusion of last week's Gospel, with the words of Isaiah about the breadth of God's mercy and justice at its heart. The response of the crowd in the synagogue is united: all are amazed, but all likewise ask if he's not merely the son of Joseph the humble carpenter. Jesus calls them out for seeming to think that he ought to be doing his ministry only locally, and --selfishly--only for them. (After all, they know where he comes from!) When Jesus essentially replies "nope" through some proverbs and prophetic stories, all the crowd gets angry at his implication that the fulfillment in Jesus is for everyone, not just for them. When our "take care of your own" reflex kicks in, we would do well to recall that this isn't the attitude of Jesus, nor is it the attitude of his mission that we continue to this day.

YOU'VE BEEN WARNED

The opening of the reading selected from Jeremiah is surely one of the most comforting in scripture. Imagine! God knew me before my bodily conception; God dedicated me before my birth or any human dedication rites; God appointed me a prophet! Then comes the uh-oh. Jeremiah is warned that his appointment as a prophet will bring opposition, against which God's prophets must stand up. Somehow the appointment as God's prophet seems like it should be a bit happier, with the glamor that we might think will come from having friends in high places. Yet, just as there are many forces in the world arrayed against the divine will and divine goodness, so too are they arrayed against God's prophets. A second round of assurances comes to Jeremiah, a pledge that God will be with Jeremiah to strengthen him. God doesn't promise a turmoil-free life, but does vow to be Jeremiah's strength.

JESUS, SON OF JEREMIAH

In the synagogue at Nazareth, a similar turn of events takes place. When Jesus speaks of the Spirit's anointing being upon him, the anointing described in Isaiah, the crowd is amazed, and seems like they even want to take credit, since he's a local boy. Then Jesus speaks some words of tough love, and "local boy" pivots to "who does he think he is?" You couldn't blame Jesus, in that moment, if he recalled the words of Jeremiah, his prophetic ancestor. Though the crowd drove Jesus out of town and up a hill to throw him to his death, his time had not yet come. The strength and protection that God promises to prophets came for Jesus that day, as he passed through the mob's midst, unharmed. He passed through their midst to continue the work for which the Spirit had anointed him. For us who follow the prophetic heritage of Jesus this day, we've been warned. But we've also been assured of God's care.

Today's Readings: Jer 1:4-5, 17-19; Ps 71:1-2, 3-4, 5-6, 15-17; 1 Cor 12:31 -- 13:13 [13:4-13]; Lk 4:21-30

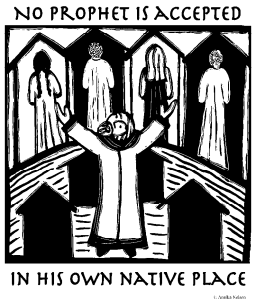
Our Faith

TO BE A PROPHET

Today's readings show us what it is like to be a prophet. As Jeremiah recounts his call, God warns him that he will need strength and perseverance to withstand the hostility he will face from "Judah's kings and princes" and "its priests and people" (Jeremiah 1:18b). God also assures him that they "will not prevail over you, for I am with you" (1:19). The psalm reflects both of these struggles as well as deliverance from them ("salvation").



This is exactly what Jesus experiences in today's Gospel. After he claims that his own mission is the same as what Isaiah proclaimed, at first the people marvel at his "gracious words" (Luke 4:22). Soon, however, they become suspicious, skeptical, and hostile, even threatening to kill him. But just as God promised to deliver Jeremiah, so Jesus "passed through the midst of them and went away" (4:30).

Letter from the Pastor

Friends,

We know from Christ's teaching that the meaning of life can be summed up in one word: love. God created us to be loved and to love. We have all memorized the two Great Commandments: love God with all your heart, soul, mind, and strength, and love your neighbor as yourself. But what is the meaning behind those words, especially "love"?

St Paul tells us in his First Letter to the Corinthians.

- He reminds us that love is the meaning of life, the "highest gift," and the "greatest" of virtues.
- He lists characteristics of Christ-like love true love.

These describe how Christ loves us and how we are called to love in return.

What is most striking is how different it is from the idea of love that's popular in today's culture.

- For the world we live in, love is a passive thing, a feeling that sweeps you off your feet and takes control of your life.
- For St Paul, Christ, and us, love is not passive at all, and it is certainly not just a feeling; love is active self-giving: patience, kindness, forgiveness, courage...
- Sometimes nice feelings go along with this authentic love, but they are unessential.

We know this is the case because Christ on the cross - had nothing to do with nice feelings.

Christ-like love, the kind of love that lasts and gives meaning to life, is not a passive feeling; it is active self-giving.

This same love described by Paul in his letter to the Corinthians makes us so proud of our school, which for the second time has received the prestigious "Blue Ribbon" award for excellence. Without the selfless dedication of Mrs. Hennessy, her entire staff of teachers, and volunteers, the "Blue Ribbon" achievement would not have been possible. What's made our school even more impressive is how they made learning happen in person when public schools were only open virtually. Our students, administration, teachers, and families worked tirelessly to create a safe, faith-filled, nurturing environment.

May God continue to bless the entire St. Norbert school community for their tireless devotion to Catholic education.
Blessings,
Fr. Steve
