A Gentle Reminder

Please contact the parish office when a person has recovered from an illness or no longer serves in the military so this information may be updated accordingly.

Friends,

I'd like to think St. Norbert Parish is a community centered on prayer. Yes, we pray at Mass, but prayer must be incorporated into everything we do. Each staff meeting begins & ends with prayer. Our small groups, school, religious education, and Adult Faith formation programs do the same.

You might say, duh, yea, this is the Church that Christ built, so of course, we pray. But I believe we're called to go deeper. It's not praying just to pray but to continue to build our personal relationship with Jesus. And to do that takes extra effort. Building a relationship with Christ means reading scripture daily, meditating on God's word. When reading scripture faithfully, we meet God.

Strengthening our relationship with Jesus calls us to incorporate quiet time to hear his whisper. To calm our distractions and to listen for direction from the God of all creation who loved us into being. Consistent prayer will open our hearts more fully to the mercy and love of God. In fervent prayer, we speak to God's heart to heart.

Building our relationship with God also call's us to help our sisters and brothers in need. We will see Jesus when serving each other. Look for Jesus in the alienated, the broken, and the imperfect. In other words, we look for Christ in each other. Remember, we are all a work in progress. Our journey of faith calls us to share the love of Jesus with everyone we meet friends and foes, family, co-workers, and those we share a pew with.

And that brings me to the Gospel for today. The Canaanite woman boldly seeks healing for her daughter. At first, we may feel put off by how Jesus treats the Canaanite women. But upon further review, let's look closer at her fervent, persistent prayer. "Oh woman, great is your faith." Let's pray for the faith of this Canaanite woman and imitate her persistence.

Blessings,

Fr. Steve

Amigos,

Me gustaría pensar que la Parroquia de San Norberto es una comunidad centrada en la oración. Sí, rezamos en misa, pero la oración debe incorporarse a todo lo que hacemos. Cada reunión del personal comienza y termina con la oración. Nuestros grupos pequeños, la escuela, la educación religiosa y los programas de formación en la fe para adultos hacen lo mismo.

Usted podría decir, duh, sí, esta es la Iglesia que Cristo construyó, así que, por supuesto, oramos. Pero creo que estamos llamados a ir más allá. No es rezar solamente por rezar, sino para seguir construyendo nuestra relación personal con Jesús, y hacer eso requiere un esfuerzo adicional. Construir una relación con Cristo significa leer las Escrituras diariamente, meditar en la Palabra de Dios. Al leer fielmente las Escrituras, nos encontramos con Dios.

Fortalecer nuestra relación con Jesús nos llama a incorporar tiempo en silencio para escuchar su susurro, para calmar nuestras distracciones y escuchar la dirección del Dios de toda la creación que nos amó para que existiéramos. La oración constante abrirá nuestros corazones más plenamente a la misericordia y al amor de Dios. En la oración ferviente, hablamos con Dios de corazón a corazón.

Construir nuestra relación con Dios también nos llama a ayudar a nuestros hermanos y hermanas necesitados. Veremos a Jesús al servirnos unos a otros. Buscamos a Jesús en los alienados, los quebrantados y los imperfectos. En otras palabras, buscamos a Cristo en los demás. Recuerda que todos somos una obra en construcción. Nuestro camino de fe nos llama a compartir el amor de Jesús con todos los que encontramos, amigos y enemigos, familia, compañeros de trabajo y aquellos con los que compartimos la banca.

Y eso me lleva al Evangelio de hoy. La mujer Cananea busca valientemente la curación de su hija. Al principio, podemos sentirnos desanimados por la forma en que Jesús trata a la mujer Cananea, pero, si lo analizamos con más detenimiento, nos fijaremos en su oración ferviente y persistente. "Oh mujer, grande es tu fe". Oremos por la fe de esta mujer Cananea e imitemos su persistencia.

Bendiciones,

Fr. Steve
