Loving and Merciful God, we humbly ask for your grace as we aspire to become a welcoming community seeking to encounter Jesus and share Him with others. A Gentle Reminder

Please contact the parish office when a person has recovered from an illness or no longer serves in the military so this information may be updated accordingly.

Friends,

In Matthew's Gospel for today, we're invited to grow in personal gratitude for the work we're called to do. It's a blessing to have a job, to be chosen for a task, and to contribute to a cause. Work is gratifying, even though it can also be tiring and demanding. St. John Paul II said, "Work is a good thing for us—a good thing for humanity—because through work we not only transform nature, adapting it to our needs but also achieve fulfillment as a human being." Let's thank God for the work he places in our hands and accomplish it for his glory to the best of our ability.

Isn't it true that sometimes our hearts can quickly move from gratitude to indignance when someone receives more than we judge is due? We can never fully comprehend the plight of another. In addition to personal gratitude for our situation, we're called to empathize with others. Comparing ourselves to others blocks our ability to see things from their perspective.

Our Lord calls us to rejoice in another's good fortune, always trusting God's good judgment. Only when firmly grounded in the knowledge that God loves us can we truly rejoice at another's good fortune. If we labor all day as faithful disciples in his vineyard, blessed be God. If we find our meaning and purpose in God later in life, blessed be God. Either way, our reward for a job well done far surpasses our human efforts. We will never deserve heaven. God's gift is given to those who know, love, and serve him in this world.

And now I'd like to express my gratitude. I'm grateful for the generosity of you, the parishioners. I'm thankful for the enthusiasm of the parish staff, the priests, and deacons. For the school families, the administration, and teachers. I'm grateful to all who volunteer to make St. Norbert's a welcoming parish. All of you make this place what it is, a true example of what it means to be a disciple of Christ.

Blessings,

Fr. Steve

Amigos,

En el Evangelio de Mateo de hoy, se nos invita a crecer en gratitud personal por el trabajo que estamos llamados a hacer. Es una bendición tener un trabajo, ser elegido para una tarea y contribuir a una causa. El trabajo es gratificante, aunque también puede ser agotador y exigente. San Juan Pablo II dijo: "El trabajo es un bien para nosotros -un bien para la humanidad- porque a través del trabajo no sólo transformamos la naturaleza, adaptándola a nuestras necesidades, sino que también alcanzamos la plenitud como seres humanos". Demos gracias a Dios por el trabajo que pone en nuestras manos y realicémoslo para su gloria lo mejor que podamos.

¿No es cierto que a veces nuestro corazón puede pasar rápidamente de la gratitud a la indignación cuando alguien recibe más de lo que juzgamos que le corresponde? Nunca podemos comprender del todo la difícil situación de los demás. Además de la gratitud personal por nuestra situación, estamos llamados a empatizar con los demás. Compararnos con los demás bloquea nuestra capacidad de ver las cosas desde su perspectiva.

Nuestro Señor nos llama a alegrarnos de la buena suerte de los demás, confiando siempre en el buen juicio de Dios. Sólo cuando estamos firmemente cimentados en el conocimiento de que Dios nos ama podemos alegrarnos verdaderamente de la buena fortuna de los demás. Si trabajamos todo el día como discípulos fieles en su viña, bendito sea Dios. Si encontramos nuestro significado y propósito en Dios más tarde en la vida, bendito sea Dios. En cualquier caso, nuestra recompensa por un trabajo bien hecho supera con creces nuestros esfuerzos humanos. Nunca mereceremos el cielo. El don de Dios se concede a quienes le conocen, le aman y le sirven en este mundo.

Y ahora me gustaría expresar mi gratitud. Estoy agradecido por la generosidad de ustedes, los feligreses. Estoy agradecido por el entusiasmo del personal de la parroquia, los sacerdotes y los diáconos. Por las familias de la escuela, la administración y los profesores. Estoy agradecido por todos los voluntarios que hacen de San Norberto una parroquia acogedora. Todos ustedes hacen de este lugar lo que es, un verdadero ejemplo de lo que significa ser discípulo de Cristo.

Bendiciones,

Fr. Steve

Walking with Purpose is a program that meets women right where they are, hands them a cup of coffee, and transforms their hearts. We are thrilled to announce that we will offer two Bible studies this season. Trust us. This may be your best YES ever.

Opening Your Heart, our foundational study, is perfect for a woman new to WWP (with or without Bible study experience). We invite you to be amazed at how Scripture applies to your everyday life.

Touching the Divine (Second Edition), a study of the Gospel of John, is designed for women who have participated in WWP in the past. This study draws us into a deeper, loving relationship with Jesus as we reflect on His life and personality.
