Matthew 21: 33-43

Vision Prayer

Loving and Merciful God, we humbly ask for your grace as we aspire to become a welcoming community seeking to encounter Jesus and share Him with others. Help us to listen attentively for the guidance of the Holy Spirit and lovingly embrace Jesus present in each other, the poor, the alienated, and the spiritually hungry. Amen.

A Gentle Reminder

Please contact the parish office when a person has recovered from an illness or no longer serves in the military so this information may be updated accordingly.

Friends,

Today's readings paint the picture of a vineyard or a garden. Gardens are environments carefully created by gardeners to enable plants to be healthy and bear abundant fruit. God sees our souls as gardens of virtue. Just as God supplied the vineyard with air, sunlight, water, soil, the wall to protect it, and the tower to guard it, he supplies each of us with life, talents, opportunities, sacraments, faith, and the guidance of the Church. No good thing doesn't owe its origin and existence to God.

One of the best things that God gives us is his mercy and patience. In today's readings, God gives his tenants the chance to do the right thing. When they don't do what's right, God sends three different messengers, including his son. He could have evicted those selfish stewards right away. But God is patient with our sins and selfishness. He keeps giving us more and more chances than we deserve. God never gives up on us, even though sometimes we give up on ourselves.

God's boundless mercy is the best evidence of his immense goodness. And how can we deepen our knowledge of God's goodness? St. Paul says we must become people of prayer: offering God all our worries, thanking him for all our gifts, and contemplating all the good things God has done and surrounded us with.

The society around us, our selfishness, and the devil try to clog up our minds with complaints and problems so that we lose sight of the bigger picture. Only by consciously lifting our hearts and minds to God each day do we gradually come to root our lives in the deep, rich soil of God's goodness.

How is our prayer life? Does it include heart-to-heart conversations with Christ? In the Mass, as we renew our faith in God's boundless goodness and mercy, let's also renew our commitment to being Christian's worthy of our name, Christians who love Christ enough to spend some time with him in personal prayer every single day.

Blessings,

Fr. Steve

Remembrance Candles

Week of 10/8

Blessed Mother Candle burns for
Sister Raymonde of the Holy Rosary

Saint Joseph Candle burns for
Mary Pat Carey

Amigos,

Las lecturas de hoy pintan el cuadro de un viñedo o un jardín. Los jardines son entornos cuidadosamente creados por los jardineros para que las plantas estén sanas y den frutos abundantes. Dios ve nuestras almas como jardines de virtud. Del mismo modo que Dios proveyó a la viña de aire, luz solar, agua, tierra, el muro para protegerla y la torre para guardarla, nos provee a cada uno de nosotros de vida, talentos, oportunidades, sacramentos, fe y la guía de la Iglesia. No hay cosa buena que no deba su origen y existencia a Dios.

Una de las mejores cosas que Dios nos da es su misericordia y su paciencia. En las lecturas de hoy, Dios da a sus inquilinos la oportunidad de hacer lo correcto. Cuando no hacen lo correcto, Dios envía tres mensajeros diferentes, entre ellos a su hijo. Podía haber desalojado a esos mayordomos egoístas de inmediato. Pero Dios es paciente con nuestros pecados y nuestro egoísmo. Sigue dándonos más y más oportunidades de las que merecemos. Dios nunca se da por vencido con nosotros, aunque a veces nosotros nos demos por vencidos con nosotros mismos.

La misericordia sin límites de Dios es la mejor prueba de su inmensa bondad. ¿Y cómo podemos profundizar en el conocimiento de la bondad de Dios? San Pablo dice que debemos convertirnos en personas de oración: ofreciendo a Dios todas nuestras preocupaciones, agradeciéndole todos nuestros dones y contemplando todas las cosas buenas que Dios ha hecho y de las que nos ha rodeado.

La sociedad que nos rodea, nuestro egoísmo y el demonio intentan atascar nuestra mente con quejas y problemas para que perdamos de vista el panorama general. Sólo elevando conscientemente nuestros corazones y nuestras mentes a Dios cada día llegaremos gradualmente a arraigar nuestras vidas en la tierra rica y profunda de la bondad de Dios.

¿Cómo es nuestra vida de oración? ¿Incluye conversaciones de corazón a corazón con Cristo? En la Misa, mientras renovamos nuestra fe en la bondad y misericordia ilimitadas de Dios, renovemos también nuestro compromiso de ser cristianos dignos de nuestro nombre, cristianos que aman a Cristo lo suficiente como para pasar un rato con Él en oración personal cada día.

Bendiciones,

Fr. Steve
