Vision Prayer

Loving and Merciful God, we humbly ask for your grace as we aspire to become a welcoming community seeking to encounter Jesus and share Him with others. A Gentle Reminder

Please contact the parish office when a person has recovered from an illness or no longer serves in the military so this information may be updated accordingly.

Friends,

There is a whole lotta love happening in this Sunday's Scriptures. Jesus commands us to love one another. At the Last Supper, Jesus revealed the great mystery of the Holy Trinity. God is Father, Son, and Spirit. God is revealed by Jesus as a communion of Love. The Father eternally loves the Son and the Son loves the Father. Their mutual eternal love brings forth the third person of the Trinity – God the Holy Spirit. This eternal Triune communion of love offers us a share in their divine love. This is the whole purpose of creation. And when human beings broke the bond of love with God, the Father sent the Son to the world: "For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son so that everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life" (John 3:16).

Love is more than a passive feeling; it's an action. Whether or not I love someone should not be based on how the other person makes me feel. Love is about how people can give themselves to one another for each other's good. It is about how I can give of myself and sacrifice for another person and their good. God's love is not selfish or self-centered, but self-giving.

God the Father doesn't hold back when seeing His children in need. God seeks their true good and sends his Son to save them and reestablish divine friendship. God is not a master who seeks to benefit from his servants, but a Father who wants to see His children flourish and enjoy divine life and love.

May we love like Jesus does. May we give our life for the sake of others so that they may come to know and encounter God's love. May we do our best to be love in this world and alleviate the sufferings of those around us.

Blessings,

Fr. Steve

Amigos,

Hay mucho amor en las Escrituras de este Domingo. Jesús nos ordena amarnos los unos a los otros. En la Última Cena, Jesús reveló el gran misterio de la Santísima Trinidad. Dios es Padre, Hijo y Espíritu. Dios es revelado por Jesús como una comunión de Amor. El Padre ama eternamente al Hijo, y el Hijo ama al Padre. De su mutuo Amor eterno nace la Tercera Persona de la Trinidad: Dios Espíritu Santo. Esta eterna comunión de Amor Trino nos ofrece una participación en su Amor divino. Esta es la finalidad de la creación. Y cuando los seres humanos rompieron el vínculo de Amor con Dios, el Padre envió al Hijo al mundo: "Porque tanto amó Dios al mundo que envió a su único Hijo para que todo el que crea en Él no perezca, sino que tenga vida eterna" (Juan 3,16).

El amor es más que un sentimiento pasivo; es una acción. Si amo o no a alguien no debería basarse en cómo me hace sentir la otra persona. El amor consiste en cómo las personas pueden entregarse unas a otras para el bien de los demás. Se trata de cómo puedo dar de mí mismo y sacrificarme por otra persona y por su bien. El amor de Dios no es egoísta ni egocéntrico, sino generoso.

Dios Padre no se reprime cuando ve a sus hijos necesitados. Dios busca su verdadero bien y envía a su Hijo para salvarlos y restablecer la amistad divina. Dios no es un amo que busca beneficiarse de sus siervos, sino un Padre que quiere ver florecer a sus hijos y gozar de la vida y el Amor divinos.

Que amemos como Jesús. Que demos nuestra vida por los demás para que conozcan y encuentren el Amor de Dios. Que hagamos todo lo posible para ser Amor en este mundo y aliviar los sufrimientos de los que nos rodean.

Bendiciones,

Fr. Steve

Catholic Home Missions

"Home Missions" is the name for dioceses and parishes in the United States, including its territories and former territories, which cannot provide basic pastoral services to Catholics without outside help. Basic pastoral services include Mass and sacraments, religious education, and ministry training for priests, deacons, religious sisters and lay people.

For many decades, the Church in the United States has sent missionaries overseas to serve the people of Latin America, Africa, Asia, and Oceania. The home missions are dioceses and parishes here in the United States that need the same kind of support.

Thank you for your generous and prayerful support!
