SEPTEMBER 1, 2024 | 22ND SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

*Nothing that enters one from outside can defile that person;
but the things that come out from within are what defile.*

Mark 7:15

Vision Prayer

Loving and Merciful God, we humbly ask for your grace as we aspire to become a welcoming community seeking to encounter Jesus and share Him with others. Help us to listen attentively for the guidance of the Holy Spirit and lovingly embrace Jesus present in each other, the poor, the alienated, and the spiritually hungry. Amen.

A Gentle Reminder

Please contact the parish office when a person has recovered from an illness or no longer serves in the military so this information may be updated accordingly.

Friends,

This Sunday, we read the Letter of James as the Second Reading. It is a very practical letter that teaches that our Christian Faith needs to flourish in works of charity. Faith does not consist in simply believing that God exists but must be completed in works of love and mercy (James 2:22). Faith without works of love is dead and useless. The Second Reading begins by reminding us that God does not tempt us to sin but is the giver of every good gift.

God offers us the crown of eternal life, wisdom, truth, and being a new creation. Ultimately, all these perfect gifts refer to eternal life and salvation; God wills our salvation and life, not damnation and death. To think otherwise is to be deceived. God is the infinite, unchanging source of all that is good. Those who receive God's word do so humbly and know that the hope of salvation lies in God's gracious gift and not in their own strength. The path to life comes through accepting God's word of truth and persevering in it. Death comes from being ensnared in our own desires and the influence of the world.

We receive God's divine wisdom when we develop our relationship with Him. This can be accomplished through consistent prayer, attending Mass, and receiving the Sacraments. Along with works of charity, our Faith develops and matures when we fully love the Lord.

May we humbly welcome the Lord into our lives and hearts so that God can transform us with divine grace. Let us pray to do good and avoid evil so that we may merit eternal life with the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit.

We are delighted that Saint Norbert School is back in session. Let's pray for the students, parents, faculty, and administrators of our blue-ribbon school that the Holy Spirit inspires and strengthens them as they embark on this new school year. Go, Bulldogs!

Blessings,

Fr. Steve

Remembrance Candles

Week of 9/1

Blessed Mother Candle burns for Residents of Highgate

Saint Joseph Candle burns for

Amigos,

Este domingo, leemos la Carta de Santiago como segunda lectura. Es una carta muy práctica que enseña que nuestra fe cristiana necesita florecer en obras de caridad. La fe no consiste simplemente en creer que Dios existe, sino que debe completarse con obras de amor y misericordia (Santiago 2,22). La fe sin obras de amor está muerta y es inútil. La segunda lectura comienza recordándonos que Dios no nos tienta a pecar, sino que es el dador de todo don bueno.

Dios nos ofrece la corona de la vida eterna, la sabiduría, la verdad y el ser una nueva creación. En última instancia, todos estos dones perfectos se refieren a la vida eterna y a la salvación; Dios quiere nuestra salvación y nuestra vida, no la condenación y la muerte. Pensar lo contrario es engañarse. Dios es la fuente infinita e inmutable de todo lo bueno. Los que reciben la palabra de Dios lo hacen con humildad y saben que la esperanza de salvación reside en el don gratuito de Dios y no en sus propias fuerzas. El camino hacia la vida pasa por aceptar la palabra verdadera de Dios y perseverar en ella. La muerte viene de quedar atrapados en nuestros propios deseos y en la influencia del mundo Recibimos la sabiduría divina de Dios cuando desarrollamos nuestra relación con Él. Esto puede lograrse mediante la oración constante, la asistencia a Misa y la recepción de los Sacramentos. Junto con las obras de caridad, nuestra fe se desarrolla y madura cuando amamos plenamente al Señor.

Que acojamos humildemente al Señor en nuestras vidas y corazones para que Dios pueda transformarnos con la gracia divina. Oremos para hacer el bien y evitar el mal para que podamos merecer la vida eterna con el Padre, el Hijo y el Espíritu Santo.

Nos alegramos de que el colegio de San Norberto haya iniciado las clases. Recemos por los alumnos, padres, profesores y administradores de nuestro colegio, para que el Espíritu Santo les inspire y fortalezca en este nuevo curso escolar. ¡Vamos, Bulldogs!

Bendiciones,

Fr. Steve

What is Alpha?

Alpha is a series that explores the basics of the Christian faith in a friendly environment. It's a place to connect with people where you can say anything you like or nothing at all. Alpha has 3 key elements:

All sessions start with a dinner - time to relax and build friendships.

The Alpha talks explore a new question of faith each week and are designed to spark conversation.

Small groups provide an opportunity to discuss the session's topic together in an open, honest, and friendly environment.

Join us on Monday nights starting on September 23.
You can register on the parish website.

New Encounters

In June 2023, Archbishop Perez wrote a pastoral letter encouraging all parishes to pursue encounters across racial and cultural lines and to engage in open and honest conversations about race. A diocesan-wide organization called New Encounters: Catholics Confronting Racism has been convening groups of parishioners from around the Archdiocese quarterly to discern how we can become racial healers as Catholics.

St. Norbert Parish & Daylesford Abbey, as active participants in this program, will host the next gathering of New Encounters on Saturday, September 21st from 11:00 am to 2:00 pm in the Oratory (Lunch is included).

The theme will be "How a Parish Social History Can Help with Racial Healing" with Dr. Maureen O'Connell, Chair of the Department of Religion at LaSalle University and author of "Undoing the Knots: Five Generations of American Catholic Anti-Blackness."

Please contact Deacon Steve at smartino@parish.stnorbert.org if you would like to attend the program on September 21st.

Martha's Hospitality Ministry

In imitation of St. Martha, this new ministry is responsible for hosting hospitality after all the weekend Masses starting this September to foster friendships and provide a warm inclusion for all our parishioners. All food and drink shall be provided by the parish.

Volunteers of all ages are needed to help with set up and clean-up of the hospitality after each Mass. Ideally, we are looking for two volunteers per Mass. There is no heavy lifting, just helping to set up and clean up. It's an easy way to contribute to our parish community and help enhance our weekend experience.

For more information, please contact Martina Tamaro at martinameoli@aol.com or (610) 291-2726.

Welcome Desk Ministry

We are looking to reinvigorate the Welcome Desk Ministry in order to provide a place for newcomers to learn more about St. Norbert Parish.

Our hope is to staff the desk with one friendly face for 15-20 minutes before and after all weekend Masses. Scheduling is very flexible and can be customized to your preferences. Volunteers can help out as much or as little as is convenient.

If you'd like to help enhance the welcoming spirit of our parish and learn more about volunteering at the Welcome Desk, please contact Nicole Manion at nicolemanion@gmail.com.
