Vision Prayer

Loving and Merciful God, we humbly ask for your grace as we aspire to become a welcoming community seeking to encounter Jesus and share Him with others. A Gentle Reminder

Please contact the parish office when a person has recovered from an illness or no longer serves in the military so this information may be updated accordingly.

Friends,

Today's Scripture readings give us two challenges: 1) Ask God's help to open our spiritually blind eyes and deaf ears and free our mute tongue. 2) Share in Jesus' healing ministry by lending our eyes, ears, tongues, and hearts to him.

We need to help Jesus heal the deaf and the mute today. Jesus desires to touch and heal us by loosening our tongues so that, through us and our surrendered hearts, he may speak to the spiritually hungry and touch people's lives here and now.

Christ continues touching and healing us in the Sacraments – visible signs of invisible grace. We need to learn how to have Faith and trust in our Savior's words and actions. In times of grief, despair, and failure, we can be "deaf" to the presence of God in the love and compassion of others, or we can become so preoccupied with the noise and clamor of the marketplace that we are unable to hear the voices of those we love and who love us. We may find it hard to pray to God and listen to Him talking to us through the Bible and the Church.

Let's imitate the man in the Gospel by seeking out Jesus, following Jesus away from the crowd, spending more time getting to know Jesus intimately as we study Holy Scripture, and experiencing Jesus directly in our lives in personal prayer. Our growing awareness of Jesus's healing presence in our lives will open our ears and loosen our tongues.

How about bringing a friend to Mass this weekend? And please join us for fellowship and hospitality in the Oratory after all Masses. Also, Joey Ferrell, St. Norbert Parish Youth Minister, will share his witness at all the Masses. Kingdom Junction and Children's Liturgy of the Word will be available at the 9:00AM Mass. Together, let's share Christ's healing and love.

Blessings,

Fr. Steve

Birthday Blessings for Br. Seamus Wiseman

Amigos,

Las lecturas bíblicas de hoy nos plantean dos retos: 1) Pedir la ayuda de Dios para que abra nuestros ojos espiritualmente ciegos y nuestros oídos sordos y libere nuestra lengua muda. 2) Participar en el ministerio de curación de Jesús prestándole nuestros ojos, oídos, lengua y corazón.

Hoy tenemos que ayudar a Jesús a sanar a los sordos y a los mudos. Jesús desea tocarnos y sanarnos soltando nuestras lenguas para que, a través de nosotros y de nuestros corazones rendidos, pueda hablar a los hambrientos espiritualmente y tocar las vidas de la gente aquí y ahora.

Cristo sigue tocándonos y curándonos en los Sacramentos, signos visibles de una gracia invisible. Necesitamos aprender a tener fe y confianza en las palabras y acciones de nuestro Salvador. En tiempos de dolor, desesperación y fracaso, podemos ser «sordos» a la presencia de Dios en el amor y la compasión de los demás, o podemos llegar a estar tan preocupados por el ruido y el clamor del mercado que seamos incapaces de escuchar las voces de aquellos a quienes amamos y que nos aman. Puede que nos cueste rezar a Dios y escucharle hablarnos a través de la Biblia y de la Iglesia.

Imitemos al hombre del Evangelio buscando a Jesús, siguiendo a Jesús lejos de la multitud, pasando más tiempo conociéndolo íntimamente mientras estudiamos las Sagradas Escrituras y experimentando a Jesús directamente en nuestras vidas en la oración personal. Nuestra creciente toma de conciencia sobre la presencia sanadora de Jesús en nuestras vidas nos abrirá los oídos y nos soltará la lengua.

¿Qué tal si traes a un amigo a Misa este fin de semana? Y por favor, únase a nosotros para el compañerismo y la hospitalidad en el Oratorio después de todas las misas. Además, Joey Ferrell, Ministro de la Juventud de la Parroquia de San Norberto, compartirá su testimonio en todas las misas. Kingdom Junction y la Liturgia de la Palabra para Niños estarán disponibles en la Misa de las 9:00AM. Juntos, compartamos la sanación y el amor de Cristo.

Bendiciones,

Fr. Steve

New Encounters

In June 2023, Archbishop Perez wrote a pastoral letter encouraging all parishes to pursue encounters across racial and cultural lines and to engage in open and honest conversations about race. A diocesan-wide organization called New Encounters: Catholics Confronting Racism has been convening groups of parishioners from around the Archdiocese quarterly to discern how we can become racial healers as Catholics.

St. Norbert Parish & Daylesford Abbey, as active participants in this program, will host the next gathering of New Encounters on Saturday, September 21st from 11:00 am to 2:00 pm in the Oratory (Lunch is included).

The theme will be "How a Parish Social History Can Help with Racial Healing" with Dr. Maureen O'Connell, Chair of the Department of Religion at LaSalle University and author of "Undoing the Knots: Five Generations of American Catholic Anti-Blackness."

Please contact Deacon Steve at smartino@parish.stnorbert.org if you would like to attend the program on September 21st.

Martha's Hospitality Ministry

In imitation of St. Martha, this new ministry is responsible for hosting hospitality after all the weekend Masses starting this September to foster friendships and provide a warm inclusion for all our parishioners. All food and drink shall be provided by the parish.

Volunteers of all ages are needed to help with set up and clean-up of the hospitality after each Mass. Ideally, we are looking for two volunteers per Mass. There is no heavy lifting, just helping to set up and clean up. It's an easy way to contribute to our parish community and help enhance our weekend experience.

For more information, please contact Martina Tamaro at martinameoli@aol.com or (610) 291-2726.

Welcome Desk Ministry

We are looking to reinvigorate the Welcome Desk Ministry in order to provide a place for newcomers to learn more about St. Norbert Parish.

Our hope is to staff the desk with one friendly face for 15-20 minutes before and after all weekend Masses. Scheduling is very flexible and can be customized to your preferences. Volunteers can help out as much or as little as is convenient.

If you'd like to help enhance the welcoming spirit of our parish and learn more about volunteering at the Welcome Desk, please contact Nicole Manion at nicolemanion@gmail.com.
